

Baronet, of Hawkesbury, in the said County of Gloucester, during his life and the said Anthony Banks Jenkinson is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Anthony Banks Jenkinson is a Minor and Joan Langhorne, wife of the said Algernon Philip Yorke Langhorne is his guardian:

"And whereas the said Anthony Banks Jenkinson and the said Joan Langhorne as such guardian are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hawkesbury should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token of his willingness to accept jointly with the other persons hereinafter mentioned the transfer of the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage hereinafter recommended and proposed and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Hawkesbury which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same Benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the Parish of Hawkesbury:

"Now therefore with the consent of the said George William Rowe, Edward Guy Ripley and Algernon Philip Yorke Langhorne as trustees (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme), with the consent of the said Joan Langhorne, being the person whose consent on behalf of the Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106 (in testimony of which consent she has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the persons to whom together with the said Joan Langhorne and the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester, it is hereinafter recommended and proposed that the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage should be transferred, that is to say, with the consent of the Venerable Charles Henry Ridsdale, Clerk in Holy Orders and Archdeacon of Gloucester, of Annie Mabel Stinchcomb, wife of Francis Melville Stinchcomb, of Court Farm, Hawkesbury, in the said County of Gloucester, Esquire, and of George Thomas Pearce of Home Farm, Hawkesbury, in the said County of Gloucester, Esquire (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Hawkesbury shall be transferred to the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester; Charles Henry Ridsdale; Joan Langhorne; Annie Mabel Stinchcomb; and George Thomas Pearce; and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester; Charles Henry Ridsdale; Joan Langhorne; Annie Mabel Stinchcomb; and George Thomas Pearce, their heirs and assigns for ever as Trustees upon the trusts to be declared by a certain Indenture already prepared and intended to be executed by the said Arthur Cayley, Bishop of Gloucester; Charles Henry Ridsdale; Joan Langhorne; Annie Mabel Stinchcomb and George Thomas Pearce.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Gloucester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of November, 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 15th October, 1889, and made under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, it was ordered that burials should be discontinued in (amongst other places) Drypool Cemetery, in the Parish of Drypool, in the County of York, with the modifications in the said Order specified:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to vary any Order in Council made under the Burial Act, 1853, as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the said Parish of Drypool ten
