STATEMENT ISSUED TO THE PRESS OF MEXICO CITY ON OCTOBER 10TH, 1929, REGARDING THE LAWS REGULATING THE COMMISSION TO ADJUST THE PUBLIC INTERNAL DEBT, PUBLISHED IN THE "OFFICIAL GAZETTE" OF MAY 22ND, 1929.

Owing to the fact that credits which do not fulfil all the conditions laid down in the relevant Regulating Law are frequently presented to the Commission for the Adjustment of the Internal Public Debt, the Ministry of Finance considers it desirable to draw attention to the following points:—

Article 2, Section XII, of the Regulating Law of the Commission for the Adjustment of the Internal Public Debt of February 20th last lays down that "the credits already classified, are all those whose total may have been fixed and recognized in favour of a specific person up to December 31st, 1928, by authority which, in conformity with the law, may have been able definitely to establish obligations against the Federal Government."

From an analysis of the above section, it may be inferred that a classified credit must have the three following characteristics:—

(1) That the amount of the claim must have been fixed, (2) that the credit must have been recognized in favour of a certain person, and

(3) that the obligation falling on the Federal Government must have been definitely established by a competent authority in accordance with the relevant law.

Consequently, the following credits will not be considered as passed and classified: those for which the bases of calculation have only been established and for which the due amount of indemnity has not been fixed, see (1) above; and those made out to bearer, see (2) above.

As regards the authorities competent to carry out final classification, the credits are divided into two groups, namely, credits in respect of indemnities for damage caused during the revolution, and credits of a distinct nature.

For the first group, the authorities are the Ministry of Finance, in accordance with the Law of the Advisory Commission of Indemnities; in cases concerning the Law of the National Claims Commission, the President of the Republic is the authority; also the Special Claims Commission, in accordance with the regulations of the law which created that Commission; and in virtue of the Presidential Decree of January 25th, 1921, the Ministry for War.

For the second group, the competent authorities have been, until January 24th, 1918, in accordance with the Organic Law of the Treasury of the Federation of May 23rd, 1910, the President of the Chamber of Deputies, the President of the Chamber of Senators and Secretaries of State; from January 25th, 1918, to December 31st, 1928, those credits are considered valid which were authorized by the above-mentioned officials and visaed by the Department of Control, in virtue of the Organic Law of Comptrollership of January 18th, 1918, and February 10th, 1926, with the exception of those which may have been pending until May 30th, 1927, in the case of which the President of the Republic was the competent authority, in accordance with Section II of Article 1 of the Law of May 11th, 1927.

As regards employees' certificates, those credits are considered classified for which the Ministry of Finance has communicated to the Treasury of the Federation the order of exchange for a specified amount and in favour of a specified person.

TRANSLATION OF OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUÉ ISSUED TO THE PRESS OF OCTOBER 21ST BY THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE.

Whereas on November 22nd next the time limit, which will not be extended, expires for presenting claims in respect of damages done in the revolution, the Ministry of Finance thinks it as well to draw the attention of interested parties to the advisability of taking advantage of the time still available for taking the necessary action with the Adjusting Commission of the Public Internal Debt so that their credits may be taken into consideration.

In order that the matter should be better understood, the articles concerning the Regulating Law of the above-mentioned Commission are reproduced as follows:—

ARTICLE 4.—The credits included in the preceding article shall be prescribed for within six months, counting from the date of the publication of this Regulating Law in the Official Gazette of the Federation.

ARTICLE 5.—The prescription referred to in the preceding article may be interrupted:—

(i) By action before the competent Tribunals.

(ii) By the fact of the submission of the credit for its identification to the Adjusting Commission of the Public Internal Debt in conformity with this Regulating Law.

(iii) In the case of credits already presented to Claims Commissions or other competent authorities, by the simple continuation of the transactions before this Commission in accordance with the regulations of this law.

ARTICLE 6.—Every credit or claim which should be considered as having lapsed or having been prescribed in accordance with previous legislation, shall be rejected.

Attention is drawn to the fact that the period established by the said law for the presentation of credits under reference cannot be extended.

It should also be remembered that even when the Consultative Commission or the National Claims Commission may have decided favourably on any matter, but have not obtained the confirmation of the Ministry of Finance in the case of matters submitted to the former Commission, or the confirmation of the President of the Republic in the case of matters referred to the latter, such claims are considered under discussion and interested parties are accordingly under the obligation of continuing their action with the Adjusting Commission of the Public Internal Debt within the time limit under reference.

With regard to credits which may be to the charge of the Federal Government and which may not be considered as classified in accordance with Article 2, Section XI (sic) ? (XII) of the Regulating Law, that is to say, their amount not having been fixed and determined in favour of a specified person by authority which, in conformity with the law, may have been able definitely to establish obligations against the Federal Government, notice is given that these credits should be presented to the above-mentioned Adjusting Commission for classification.

Admiralty, 11th November, 1929.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Albert Medal to Lieutenant-Commander Alexander Henry Maxwell-Hyslop, R.N., and No. Po./21038 Marine Albert Edward Streams for gallantry in saving life at sea.

The following is the account of the services in respect of which the decorations have been conferred:—

H.M.S. "Devonshire" was carrying out full calibre firing on 26th July, 1929, when at the first salvo there was a heavy explosion which blew off the roof of one of the turrets.

Marine Streams was the only man in the gun house who was not either killed instantly or fatally injured. He was seriously shaken by the explosion and instinctively climbed to the top of the side plating to escape but, on arriving at the top he looked back and saw the conditions inside the turret, and deliberately climbed back into it amidst the smoke and fumes notwithstanding the grave risk of further explosions. He then helped to evacuate the one remaining man of the right gun's crew, and took charge and played a major part in evacuating the crew of the Fire Control cabinet. When all the wounded were out he collapsed. His bravery, initiative and devotion to duty were beyond praise.

Lieutenant-Commander Maxwell-Hyslop was in the fore control when the explosion occurred, and immediately proceeded to the turret and climbed inside. He made a general examination of the turret, and descended the gun well through most dangerous conditions of fumes and smoke, necessitating the use of a life line, remaining in the turret until the emergency was over, directing arrangements for the safety of the magazine, and supervising the evacuation of the wounded. He was fully aware of the danger to himself from the results of cordite fumes, and the grave risk of further explosions.

At the time this officer and man entered the turret the fire produced by the explosion was still burning and it was impossible to estimate the real state of affairs due to the heavy smoke. They both were fully aware that there were other cordite charges in the hoist and handing room below which might ignite at any moment with almost certain fatal results to themselves, and they deliberately endangered their own lives to save the lives of others.
