

the United Benefice of Astley Abbots with Linley.

"3. That with the consents of the said Charles Strathnairn Jackson and the said Anthony Hodgson (testified by their signing this Scheme), upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union referred to in Clause 2 of this Scheme shall forthwith take effect and the said Anthony Hodgson if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Astley Abbots shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Astley Abbots with Linley.

"4. That with the consent of the said Charles Strathnairn Jackson (testified as aforesaid), if upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme the said Benefice of Benthall shall be vacant the union referred to in Clause 1 of this Scheme shall forthwith take effect and the said Charles Strathnairn Jackson shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Broseley with Benthall, but if upon that day the said Benefice of Benthall shall be full then the union of the said Benefices of Broseley and Benthall shall take effect immediately upon the first vacation thereafter of the said Benefice of Benthall and the said Charles Strathnairn Jackson or his successor, Incumbent of the said Benefice of Broseley, shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Broseley with Benthall.

"5. That upon the union referred to in Clause 1 of this Scheme taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Broseley with Linley shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Broseley with Benthall.

"6. That upon the union referred to in Clause 2 of this Scheme taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Astley Abbots shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Astley Abbots with Linley.

"7. That after the union referred to in Clause 1 of this Scheme has taken effect all right claim or title of the said John William Isherwood, Vicar or Incumbent of the said Benefice of Much Wenlock, and his successors Vicars or Incumbents of the said Benefice of Much Wenlock, to any interest in the Patronage of the United Benefice of Broseley with Benthall shall be transferred to the said George Cecil Beaumont, Baron Forester, to the intent that the whole Patronage of the United Benefice of Broseley with Benthall shall belong to the said George Cecil Beaumont, Baron Forester, and that in exchange for such right of Patronage so transferred the said John William Isherwood, Vicar or Incumbent of the said Benefice of Much Wenlock and his successors Vicars or Incumbents of the said Benefice of Much Wenlock, shall as from the same day be entitled to a one third share in the Patronage of the said Benefice of Little Wenlock, that is to say that in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination to be made thereafter to the said Benefice of Little Wenlock, the said George Cecil Beaumont, Baron Forester, shall have the first and second turns and the said John William Isherwood, Vicar or Incumbent of the said Benefice of Much Wenlock, and his successors Vicars or Incumbents of the said Benefice of Much Wenlock shall have the third turn.

"8. That after the union referred to in Clause 2 of this Scheme has taken effect the Patronage of the United Benefice of Astley Abbots with Linley shall belong wholly to the Patrons of the said Benefice of Astley Abbots.

"9. That upon the union referred to in Clause 1 of this Scheme taking effect the whole of the extra-parochial place called or known as Posenhall lying between the Parish of the said Benefice of Benthall and the Parish of the Benefice of Barrow (being one of the Parishes of the United Benefice of Willey with Barrow, in the said Diocese of Hereford) shall be transferred and annexed to and for all ecclesiastical purposes form part of the Parish of the said Benefice of Benthall and the United Benefice of Broseley with Benthall.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make certain alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Hereford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be
