

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of February, 1930.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of December, 1929, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the unions (1) of the Benefice of Troston with the Benefice of Great Livermere (being part of the United Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere) and (2) of the Benefice of Ampton with the Benefice of Little Livermere (being the remaining part of the said United Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere) all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Suffolk and in the Diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Walter Godfrey, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the unions (1) of the said Benefice of Troston with the said Benefice of Great Livermere and (2) of the said Benefice of Ampton with the said Benefice of Little Livermere duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich and therein recommended the said unions of Benefices and the terms for effecting the same, and the said Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said unions of Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas the said Benefices of Troston and Great Livermere with Little Livermere are now full, the Reverend Henry North George Hall being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Troston and the Reverend Henry Carey Dobrée being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere, and the said Benefice of Ampton is at present vacant:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Walter Godfrey, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Troston and the part of the said United Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere which consists of the said Benefice of Great Livermere shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Great Livermere with Troston' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That the said Benefice of Ampton and the part of the said United Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere which consists of the said Benefice of Little Livermere shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls and one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes under the style of 'The United Benefice of Ampton with Little Livermere' and that such United Benefice shall be included in and form part of the Rural Deanery of Thingoe.

"3. That the Church of the Parish of Ampton shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish of Ampton with Little Livermere and that the Table of Fees for the said Parish of Ampton shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the Table of Fees for the same United Parish.

"4. That the said unions shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of Troston if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall with the approval of the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Great Livermere with Troston but if he shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere before that date and shall not so consent, or if the Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich shall not approve as aforesaid, then the said unions shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of Great Livermere with Little Livermere following such avoidance of the said Benefice of Troston and the then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Troston shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Great Livermere with Troston, and in either case the Incumbent (if any) of the said Benefice of Ampton shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Ampton with Little Livermere.

"5. That upon the said unions taking effect (a) the Parsonage House at present belonging
