

"And whereas the said Francis Whitfield Daukes has consented to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, if and when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect:

"And whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Catherine, now belongs to the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Andrew:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said William, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Andrew, and the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Catherine, shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls and one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes under the style of 'The United Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Andrew with Saint Catherine'.

"2. That the Church of the Parish of Plymouth, Saint Andrew shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish.

"3. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Francis Whitfield Daukes if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Andrew, shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That upon the union taking effect a Curate shall be employed to serve the Church of Saint Catherine, Plymouth, and to assist the Incumbent in the performance of the duties of the United Benefice.

"5. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Andrew, shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice and the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Catherine shall form part of the endowments of the United Benefice but shall be used for the purpose of a house of residence for the Curate referred to in Clause 4 of this Scheme unless the Bishop of Exeter for the time being shall at any time by writing otherwise direct.

"6. That upon the union taking effect a part of the endowments and property of the United Benefice that is to say the whole of the endowments and property other than the Parsonage House now belonging to the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Catherine, and upon the sale at any time hereafter of the said Parsonage House the net proceeds of the said sale and the investments for the time being thereof shall be appropriated as a fund whereof the income shall be applicable for and towards the payment of the stipend of the Curate referred to in Clause 4 of this Scheme and the income of the said fund shall be held and administered by the Incumbent of the United Benefice but shall be applicable only to the purpose aforesaid.

"7. That after the said union has taken effect the Patronage of the United Benefice shall belong wholly to the Patrons of the said Benefice of Plymouth, Saint Andrew.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make certain alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Exeter has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been proceeded with to His Majesty in Council in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme, and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.
