Foreign Office,

May 6th, 1930.

His Majesty's Government are in process of presenting to the Mexican Government claims of British subjects against Mexico arising out of events which took place before the renewal of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Mexico on the 28th August, 1925.

Any British subject possessing such a claim and desiring that it shall be presented to the Mexican Government by His Majesty's Government is requested to notify the Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Foreign Office, Downing Street, S.W.1, forthwith to that effect, furnishing him at the same time with full particulars of the claim unless these have already been communicated either to the Foreign Office or to His Majesty's Legation at Mexico City.

Special attention is drawn to the fact that this announcement does not refer to claims arising from revolutionary acts (as defined in the Anglo-Mexican Special Claims Convention of November 19th, 1926), which took place in Mexico during the period comprised between November 20th, 1910, and May 31st, 1920. No further action is required in regard to such claims provided that they do in effect fall within the scope of the Anglo-Mexican Special Claims Commission which is at present considering them.

Whitehall, May 3, 1930.
