

POST OFFICE TELEPHONES.

In pursuance of the Telephone Regulations, 1924, His Majesty's Postmaster General hereby gives notice that the charges for telephonic communication between Great Britain (except the Isle of Man and Northern Ireland) and (1) Argentine, (2) Uruguay and (3) Chile, are as specified in the Schedule hereto:—

THE SCHEDULE.

For telephonic communication between any place in Great Britain (except the Isle of Man and Northern Ireland) and any place in:—

	Minimum charge covering 3 minutes conversation.	Each additional minute or fraction thereof.
(1) Argentine	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
(i) Province of Buenos Aires	6 9 0	2 3 0
(ii) Remainder of the Argentine	6 15 0	2 5 0
(2) Uruguay	6 15 0	2 5 0
(3) Chile	7 1 0	2 7 0

NOTE.—Communication is at present limited to calls between any place in England, Scotland and Wales and the following places in:—

- (1) Argentine:—Principal towns in the provinces of Buenos Aires, Cordoba and Santa Fé.
- (2) Uruguay:—Monte Video.
- (3) Chile:—Santiago, Valparaiso and Vinadelmar.

The hours of service for the present are 5 p.m. to Midnight (British Time).

Calls may be booked either:—

(a) as an ordinary call, i.e., for a specified telephone station, in which case only the telephone number of the station required should be given, or

(b) as a "person-to-person" call, i.e., from a particular person to a particular person, in which case the name of the person calling should be given as well as the name of the person required. In addition, the usual telephone number of the person required and if possible the name associated with that number in the Telephone Directory, should be given. Where the telephone number of the person required is not known an effort will be made to trace it, if his name and address is given. Calling subscribers should, if possible, intimate at the time of booking a "person-to-person" call, the name of an acceptable substitute at the receiving exchange.

In the case of a "person-to-person" call, when communication with the number required is established but further efforts to complete the call are abandoned, neither the particular person required nor an accepted substitute being obtainable, a "Report Charge" of £1 3s. 0d. will be made in place of the normal charge. The caller (or failing him, his telephone exchange) will be notified of the impracticability of completing the call. When a "person-to-person" call matures, no "report charge" will be made.

Dated this 14th day of May 1930.

R. W. Woods,
Solicitor to H.M. Post Office.
