

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme or Representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the Cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such Scheme or Representation and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto:

And whereas the said Scheme or Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme or Representation and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Canterbury.

M. P. A. Hankey.

Privy Council Office, 27th May, 1930.

The following Statutes made by the Governing Body of All Souls College, in the University of Oxford, on the 17th day of May, 1930, have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923."

ALL SOULS COLLEGE, OXFORD.

AMENDMENT TO STATUTES.

WHEREAS the University of Oxford Commissioners under and by virtue of all and every the powers in that behalf enabling them contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923, did, by an Instrument under their Seal, dated the 4th day of February, 1925, approve certain Statutes thereunto annexed for your Petitioners who are therein described as "The College of the Souls of All Faithful People deceased in the University of Oxford."

And whereas such Statutes were approved by His Majesty King George the Fifth in Council on the 25th day of June, 1925.

And whereas at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for that purpose, and held on the 1st day of March, 1930, it was unanimously resolved, by those present and voting at the Meeting, that the alterations in and additions to the said Statutes hereinafter specified should be made (that is to say):—

That Clauses 9 and 10 of Statute III be repealed and that there be substituted therefor a new Clause 9 to be in the words and figures following, namely:—

"The Warden and Fellows may from time to time elect to Research Fellowships of Class A persons who have done valuable work in letters or science or who have attained special distinction in some branch of knowledge and to Research Fellowships of Class B persons who are well qualified to engage in original research.

"Election to both these classes shall be subject to the condition that Research Fellows shall undertake to perform some definite literary or scientific work in the College or in the University or with the permission of the College elsewhere, which work shall be specified in the Resolution by which they are elected.

"Such Fellows shall be elected for a period of seven years. Research Fellows of Class A and (in exceptional circumstances) Research Fellows of Class B may be re-elected for further periods of seven years. No Research Fellow shall hold his Fellowship after the age of sixty-five years unless the Warden and Fellows shall resolve by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting to extend the tenure of his Fellowship for a further period of not more than five years.

"Research Fellows of Class A shall receive a fixed annual emolument of £1,000 inclusive of allowances (except the table allowance hereinafter mentioned) and Research Fellows of Class B shall receive a fixed annual emolument of £500 inclusive as aforesaid.

"In making any such Election, the Warden and Fellows may impose any conditions, limiting or directory, as to teaching or other work to be undertaken by the Fellow."

That in Clause 23 of the said Statute there shall be inserted immediately after the words "for the time being" the following words: "or if any Research Fellow shall fail to comply bona fide with the conditions of his election"

That Clauses 11 to 23 of the said Statute (both inclusive) shall be re-numbered as Clauses 10 to 22.

That in Statute IV, Clause 1, the provision in regard to the Drummond Professor of Political Economy shall be repealed and the following provision substituted therefor:

"In respect of the Drummond Professor of Political Economy such a sum as together with what he shall receive from Mr. Drummond's Foundation shall amount to £1,200"

That in the same Clause the provision with regard to the Gladstone Professor of Political Theory and Institutions shall be repealed and the following provision shall be substituted therefor:

"In respect of the Gladstone Professor of Political Theory and Institutions such a sum as together with what he shall receive from the Gladstone National Memorial Trust's Endowment shall amount to £1,200"

That at the end of the said Clause there shall be added the following words:

"In respect of the Chichele Chair of Economic History £1,200"

That in Clause 2 of the same Statute for the words "of which one member at least
