

By deleting in the second section of Paragraph 2 the word "and" and by inserting after the word "Fellows" the words "and the Chaplain."

CHAPTER XXII.

OF RETIREMENT AND PENSION OF OFFICERS.

By deleting from Paragraph 1 the words "When any Fellow not holding nor having held any of the following College Offices, viz.: Master Tutor College Lecturer Bursar or Dean (hereinafter called "the Pensionable Offices")" and substituting therefor the following words "When any Fellow not holding nor having held any of the following College Offices, viz.: Master Tutor College Lecturer or Bursar (hereinafter called "the Pensionable Offices")."

Given under our Common Seal this 2nd day of June 1930.

Privy Council Office,
10th June, 1930.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of the College of the Great Hall of the University, commonly called University College, Oxford, on the 4th day of June, 1930, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923."

Ex Parte the Master and Fellows of the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE to amend Statute VII (Pensions) and Statute XII (Supplementary and Temporary Provisions) made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923 (13 & 14 Geo. 5. ch. 33) for the aforesaid College, duly enacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting specially summoned for this purpose and holden on the second day of May, 1930, and passed by the votes of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting, and ordered for sealing after the consent of the University had been given in Congregation on the twenty-seventh day of May, 1930 (Oxford University Gazette, LX, No. 1939, page 573) and now submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Statutes VII and XII of the College Statutes in order to assure to certain Official Fellows of the College if they have completed twenty-five years of service an annual sum which when added to the pension benefits already assured to them shall amount to a total annuity of Five hundred pounds per annum at the age of sixty, and to enable the Master and Fellows to enhance the pension benefits to be enjoyed by any existing Official Fellow of the College coming within the provisions of Statute XII. 2 (a) who shall continue to serve the College after the age of sixty years, and to empower the Master and Fellows to meet any charges thereby arising either out of Corporate Revenue or out of the income of the Pension Fund or out of both:

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to give the Master and Fellows liberty to apply any surplus revenue from the Pension Fund after meeting all charges laid upon it by Statute XII. 2 either to assure and enhance the pension benefits of any Master or Fellow or Officer for whom adequate provision could not be made otherwise or for the benefit of the dependents of any former Master or Fellow or Officer of the College who by reason of his death or disablement or for any other reason shall have been left without adequate provision:

Now, therefore, We, the Master and Fellows of the said College, in virtue of all and every the powers enabling us contained in Statute XIII. 1 of our Statutes and section 7 (2) of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1923 (13 & 14 Geo. 5. ch. 33), do alter and amend the Statutes of the College in so far as they relate to Pensions and the Pension Fund by the following omissions, alterations, and additions:

In Statute VII. 1 we strike out the words from "solely" (inclusively) to the end of the clause, and we substitute the words "to the payment of premiums for Life Assurance under the Federated Superannuation Scheme for Universities or in accordance with the provisions of Statute VII. 5 and of any other payments and allowances authorized by this Statute and by Statute XII (but not in relief of any sums authorized to be deducted from stipends under Statute VII. 2, and VII 4) or after meeting all charges laid upon it by Statute XII. 2 to the making if need shall arise of compassionate grants to any former Master or Fellow or Officer of the College or to his dependents or to such other similar purposes as the Master and Fellows may approve. If at any time the income of the Pension Fund shall be insufficient to defray the payments of premiums for Life Assurance and other payments authorized by this Statute and by Statute XII, such payments in so far as they cannot be made from the income of the Pension Fund shall be a charge upon the General Corporate Revenue, provided always that any compassionate grant authorized by this clause of this Statute shall be paid only out of the income of the Pension Fund. The Master and Fellows shall have power to transfer to the General Corporate Revenue by resolution at a Stated General Meeting any part of the income of the Pension Fund which is not required for the aforesaid purposes".

In Stat. XII. 2 (b) we alter the order of the words beginning at line 6 so as to read "in addition, undertake with the sanction of the Visitor to pay to such person on his retirement after twenty-five years or more of service":

In Stat. XII. 2 (b) we add the following words at the end: "and provided further that if any Official Fellow shall continue to serve the College after the age of sixty nothing in this sub-clause shall prevent the Master and Fellows, on condition that the Fellow shall until he reach the age of sixty-five years but not longer continue to contribute 5 per cent. of his stipend for this purpose, from continuing to contribute a sum equal to 10 per cent. of his stipend towards the augmentation of
