

deemed to be a self-governing Dominion for the purposes of the Copyright Act, 1911:

And whereas His Majesty in Council is satisfied that the law of the Irish Free State (that is to say, the Industrial and Commercial Property (Protection) Act, 1927, Number 16 of 1927, the Industrial and Commercial Property (Protection) (Amendment) Act, 1929, Number 13 of 1929, and an Order of the Governor General in Council thereunder entitled the Copyright (United Kingdom and British Dominions) Order, 1930) provides adequate protection for the works (whether published or unpublished) of authors who at the time of the making of the works were British subjects resident in the parts of His Majesty's Dominions to which this Order applies:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(1) The Copyright Act, 1911, including the provisions as to existing works, shall subject to the provisions of the said Act and of this Order apply—

(a) to works first published in the Irish Free State in like manner as if they were first published within the parts of His Majesty's Dominions to which the said Act extends.

(b) to unpublished works of authors who were at the time of the making of the works resident within the Irish Free State.

Provided that in the case of any literary or dramatic works in the Irish language, the right after the expiration of ten years from the date of first publication of the work or of the last instalment of the work to prevent the production, reproduction or publication of any translation in the English language of the work shall be conditional upon the publication before the expiration of the above mentioned period and within the parts of His Majesty's Dominions to which this Order applies of an authorised translation of the work in the English language.

(2) This Order shall apply to all the parts of His Majesty's Dominions, including any territories under His Majesty's protection, to which the Copyright Act, 1911, extends, except to self-governing Dominions.

(3) This Order shall be construed as if it formed part of the Copyright Act, 1911.

(4) This Order may be cited as the Copyright (Irish Free State) Order, 1930.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of October, 1930.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Reverend Harold Ernest, Lord Bishop of Newcastle, has, under Section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, made a Representation to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Lord Archbishop of York, in the following terms:—

"We, the Right Reverend Harold Ernest by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Newcastle, do in pursuance of an Act of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of the reign of Her late

Majesty Queen Victoria, Cap. 106, hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. There is in the County of Northumberland and Diocese of Newcastle the Rectory of Bothal the Parish whereof contains according to the last census a population of 3,575.

"The net annual value of the Benefice of Bothal is at present £1,200.

"The Patronage of the said Rectory is vested in His Grace The Duke of Portland and the Reverend Thomas Pears Gordon Forman, M.A., is the present Rector thereof.

"2. There is in the same County and Diocese the perpetual curacy and titular Vicarage of Longhirst the Parish whereof contains according to the last census a population of 427.

"The net annual value of the Benefice of Longhirst is at present £300.

"The Patronage of the said perpetual curacy and titular Vicarage is vested in Colonel The Honourable Hugh Edward Joicey and the Reverend Stanley Claude Bryson, B.A., is the present vicar thereof.

"3. It appears to us that under the provisions of the said Act 1 and 2 Victoria Chapter 106 and of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of the same reign Chapter 49 the following alterations in the contents and boundaries of the above mentioned Parishes may advantageously be made.

"The separation of certain portions of the Parish of Bothal hereinafter described and the annexation of the same to the Parish of Longhirst.

"4. Pursuant to the directions contained in the said 26th section of the first mentioned Act of Parliament, we, the said Lord Bishop, have drawn up a Scheme in writing annexed to this Representation describing such portions above referred to and the mode in which it appears to us that the alterations may be best effected and how the changes consequent thereupon in respect of Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, Glebe Lands, Tithes, Tithe Rentcharges and other ecclesiastical dues and payments and in respect of Patronage may be made with justice to all parties interested.

"And we do hereby submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the said Patrons and Incumbents and in case you shall on full consideration and enquiry be satisfied therewith we request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consents aforesaid by your report to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the Consents referred to in the said Representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate those portions of the Parish of Bothal in the County of Northumberland and Diocese of Newcastle which comprise the Townships of Causey Park, Earsdon Forest, Earsdon, Tritlington, Fenrother, Cockle Park and Hebburn all of which form the Chapelry of St. Cuthbert, Hebburn; together with the Township of Old Moor, and more particularly described in the First Schedule hereto, and to annex the same for Ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of Longhirst in the same County and Diocese.

"From and after the passing of any Order in Council carrying this Scheme into effect the Incumbent of the said Parish of Longhirst
