WHEREAS by the Copyright Act 1911 (1 and 2 Geo. 5, c. 46) authority is conferred upon His Majesty to extend by Order in Council the protection of the said Act to certain classes of foreign works within any part of His Majesty's dominions, other than self-governing dominions, to which the said Act extends:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Rulers of the Federated Malay States have made, or have undertaken to make, such provisions as it appears to His Majesty expedient to require for the protection of works entitled to copyright under the provisions of Part I of the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority conferred upon Him by the Copyright Act 1911, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. The copyright Act 1911, including the provisions as to existing works, shall subject to the provisions of the said Act and of this Order apply

(a) to works first published in the Federated Malay States, in like manner as if they had been first published within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which the said Act extends;

(b) to literary, dramatic, musical and artistic works the authors whereof were at the time of the making of the work subjects of the Rulers of the Federated Malay States, in like manner as if the authors had been British subjects;

(c) in respect of residence in the Federated Malay States, in like manner as if such residence had been residence in the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which the said Act extends.

2. Where any musical work to which this Order applies has been published before the date of this Order but no contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed have before the said date been lawfully made or placed on sale within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Order applies, copyright in the work shall include all rights conferred by the said Act with respect to the making of records, perforated rolls and other contrivances by means of which the work may be mechanically performed.

3. In the application to works to which this Order applies of Sections 1 (2) (d) and 19 of the Copyright Act 1911 the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act and for the passing of the Act in Sections 19 (7) and 19 (8) wherever those expressions occur.

4. Where any person has, before the date of this Order, taken any action whereby he has incurred any expenditure or liability in connection with the reproduction or performance of any work in a manner which at the time was lawful, or for the purpose of or with a view to the reproduction or performance of a work at a time when such reproduction or performance would, but for the making of this Order, have been lawful, nothing in this Order shall diminish or prejudice any rights or interest arising from or in connection with such action which are subsisting and valuable at the said date unless the person who, by virtue of this Order, becomes entitled to restrain such reproduction or performance agrees to pay such compensation as failing agreement may be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Copyright Act 1911.

5. This Order shall apply to all parts of His Majesty's dominions, including any territories under His Majesty's protection, to which the Copyright Act 1911 extends, except to the self-governing dominions and to Southern Rhodesia.

6. This Order shall be construed as if it formed part of the Copyright Act, 1911.

7. This Order may be cited as the Copyright (Federated Malay States) Order, 1931.
