

with the approval of the Council, given for illness or other grave cause, and any Scholar failing so to proceed may be deprived of his Scholarship by the Council.

15. The Scholarships awarded before entrance shall be open only to candidates who have not commenced residence in the University, and who before the commencement of the month in which the examination begins have not attained the age of nineteen years, or such less age as may be determined by Ordinance. It shall however be open to the Council to offer one Scholarship in each year without age limit. Eton Entrance Scholarships or Exhibitions shall be open only to candidates who were members of Eton School, whether on the foundation or not, within three months of the commencement of the academical year in which the examination is held. The age limits of candidates for Exhibitions shall be in accordance with regulations made by authority of the Governing Body.

16. The Open [Senior] Foundation Scholarships shall be open to all resident members of the College who have not completed four years from the 29th day of September next preceding the date of their commencing residence in the University. The Eton [Senior] Foundation Scholarships shall be open, under the same conditions, to resident members of the College who have been educated at Eton School, whether on the foundation or not. Minor Scholarships and Exhibitions shall be awarded after entrance subject to such regulations as to eligibility and tenure as may be made from time to time by the Governing Body.

Paragraph 16—

17. Whenever any Foundation Scholarship offered for competition is not awarded the electors may elect a properly qualified candidate to a Minor Scholarship or Exhibition over and above those offered for competition at that time, in place of the Foundation Scholarship not awarded; and whenever a Minor Scholarship offered for competition is not awarded an additional Exhibition may similarly be awarded in its place; provided that an Open award be only replaced by an Open award and an Eton award by an Eton award.

18. The conditional emoluments of [an Entrance] Foundation Scholarship, or of a Senior Foundation Scholarship, shall be such sum not exceeding £70; the conditional emoluments of a Minor Scholarship shall be such sum not exceeding £45; and the total emoluments of an Exhibition shall be such sum not exceeding £40 as the Governing Body shall from time to time determine.

Paragraph 18—

Delete the words in brackets and substitute "a" in line 1.

19. The unconditional emoluments of a Scholar shall consist of rooms in College free during term and the Long Vacation or in lieu of free rooms, a sum not exceeding £10 a term during residence, plus the amount due to the College for rent during any period of the Long Vacation during which he may be in residence. These unconditional allowances shall be made in respect of a maximum period of four years' residence.

20. The conditional emoluments of Scholars who have not been admitted, or are not qualified to be admitted to the title of a degree in the University and the whole of the emoluments of Exhibitioners shall be payable only if the pecuniary circumstances of the Scholar or Exhibitioner and his family are such as are held by the College to justify such payment. The award of such conditional emoluments and of the conditional emoluments of Scholars who have been admitted, or are qualified to be admitted, to the title of a degree in the University shall be in the hands of the Council, who may review the emoluments of all Scholarships and Exhibitions at any time taking into consideration any changes in the financial position of the holders. The Council however shall not take account, in fixing the emoluments of a scholar, of a University Scholarship specified by the University Intercollegiate Advisory Committee on Scholarships to be of particular distinction, or of University or College prizes.

21. When a Scholar or Exhibitioner (other than a holder of one of the Scholarships or Exhibitions provided under section 26 below) has waived under section 22 or is held not to be entitled to receive the full amount of the emoluments, the sum constituting the difference between the full amount and the amount paid to him shall be paid into a special fund to be called the Supplementary Scholarship Fund and shall be used towards covering the cost of the remissions and grants referred to in section 23 below, or in making grants to persons engaged in research, or otherwise for the furtherance of research. Provided that this payment shall not be made in the case of a Scholar or Exhibitioner who has completed four years from the 29th day of September next preceding the date of his beginning residence in the University, or has satisfied the conditions of paragraph 24 (ii) (b) below.

22. When a candidate for Scholarships or Exhibitions shall signify to the Provost that he does not wish to receive the emoluments of the same if elected thereto he may, if properly qualified, be elected to a Scholarship or Exhibition without emolument, which shall not be counted in the number of the Scholarships or Exhibitions provided for in the foregoing sections of this chapter. When an election of such a candidate has been made the amount of the emolument to which he would have been entitled if he had been elected otherwise than under the provisions of this section shall be paid into the Supplementary Scholarship Fund except as provided in section 26 below. The holder of a Scholarship or Exhibition may resign the emolument of his Scholarship or Exhibition and hold a Scholarship or Exhibition without emolument, which shall not be counted in the number of Scholarships or Exhibitions provided for in this Statute.

23. It shall be open to the College by remissions of fees, to be charged against the Supplementary Scholarship Fund, and by grants from the same Fund, to give assistance in case of need to Scholars or Exhibitioners, beyond the maximum emoluments of their awards; but such assistance shall in no case be
