

(3) Is the returning officer of the district for which the election is held; or,

(4) Is not entitled to vote at the election of a Member of the Council for some electoral district.

The term 'Minister of Religion' in this clause and in Clause VIII means any clergyman, minister, priest, or other person who exercises spiritual functions or performs the offices of religion for or in respect of any Christian or other church, community, or body within Grenada.

The term 'office of emolument' in this clause does not include a pension or other allowance to an officer who has ceased to be in the service of the Crown or of a Municipal Corporation.

No person shall be capable of being elected a Member of the Council for any electoral district, or having been elected, shall sit or vote in the Council, unless he possesses a clear annual income of £200, and either has resided in that electoral district for twelve months immediately preceding the day of election, or is the owner of real property situate in that electoral district of the value of at least £500 above all charges and encumbrances affecting the same."

"VIII. If any Elected Member of the Council shall, by writing under his hand, addressed to the Governor, resign his seat in the Council, or shall cease to possess an income or property qualification as required by Clause VI of this Order, or shall, without the leave of the Governor previously obtained, be absent from the sittings of the Council for three months, or shall make any declaration or acknowledgment of allegiance to any Foreign State or Power, or shall become a citizen or subject of any Foreign State or Power, or shall be adjudicated a bankrupt, or shall be sentenced in any part of His Majesty's dominions to death, penal servitude, or imprisonment with hard labour or for a term exceeding twelve months, or shall accept any office of emolument under the Crown or under a Municipal Corporation within Grenada, or shall become a Minister of Religion, his seat in the Council shall thereupon become vacant.

Whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Governor that the seat of an Elected Member has become vacant, the Governor shall, as soon as possible, issue a writ for the election of a new member in the place of the member whose seat has become vacant, but if any question shall arise as to the fact of such vacancy, it shall be referred to and decided by the Supreme Court of Grenada."

"X. If any Nominated Member of the Council shall, without the leave of the Governor previously obtained, be absent from the sittings of the Council for three months, or shall make any declaration or acknowledgment of allegiance to any Foreign State or Power, or shall become a citizen or subject of any Foreign State or Power, or shall be adjudicated a bankrupt, or shall be sentenced in any part of His Majesty's dominions to death or penal servitude, or to imprisonment with hard labour or for a term exceeding twelve months, his seat in the Council shall thereupon become vacant."

III. His Majesty hereby reserves to Himself, His heirs and successors, full power and authority from time to time to revoke, alter or amend this Order as to Him or them shall seem fit.

IV. This Order shall be published in the Grenada Government Gazette and shall thereupon come into operation.

And the Right Honourable Lord Passfield, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Colin Smith.

[This Order was brought into operation by publication in the Grenada Government Gazette of the 29th January last.]

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 22nd May, 1931, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £35,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 25th May, 1931, to Saturday, the 30th May, 1931, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

Treasury Chambers,
15th May, 1931.
