

of Enactments) Order, 1923, it is enacted that His Majesty The King may, by Order in Council, apply that section to any British Possession where His Majesty is satisfied that by the Law of such Possession, either no duty is leviable in respect of property situate in Great Britain when passing on death or that the Law of such Possession as respects any duty so leviable is to the like effect as the foregoing provisions of that Section:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Law of the Province of Saskatchewan as respects the duty leviable in respect of property situate in Great Britain when passing on death is to the like effect as the provisions of sub-section (1) of the aforesaid Section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894:

And whereas it is expedient that Section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, should be applied to the Province of Saskatchewan:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the power by the aforesaid Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Section 20 of the Finance Act, 1894, shall apply to the Province of Saskatchewan as from the ninth day of January, nineteen hundred and thirty-one.

And the Right Honourable James Henry Thomas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Dominion Affairs, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of June, 1931.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Earl of Athlone.

Lord Amulree.

Lord Colebrooke.

Lord Southborough.

Sir William Jowitt.

WHEREAS by Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928 (7 E. 7 c. 29, 4-5, G. 5, c. 18, 9-10, G. 5, c. 80, and 18-19 G. 5, c. 3), it is provided that the said Section shall apply only to vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of a foreign state with respect to which His Majesty, by Order in Council, declares that the laws thereof confer corresponding rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the foreign state or the territorial waters thereof:

And whereas by Section 91 of the said Acts it is provided that the provisions of that Section shall apply only in the case of those foreign states with respect to which His Majesty by Order in Council declares them to be applicable:

And whereas at The Hague on the 6th November, 1925, His Majesty and the heads of certain foreign states having deemed it expedient to make certain modifications in and additions to the International Convention of the 20th March, 1883, for the creation of an International Union for the Protection of Industrial Property, as revised at Brussels on the 14th December, 1900, and at Washington on the 2nd June, 1911, agreed upon a Convention (Treaty Series No. 16 (1928)), comprising the said International Convention as revised at Brussels and at Washington with the said modifications and additions, the ratification of which Convention was duly effected by Great Britain and certain other foreign states:

And whereas the United States of America have acceded to the said Convention:

And whereas by reason of the accession to the said Convention of the United States of America the laws thereof confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the United States of America or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in the said Section 48:

And whereas the said Convention is an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said Section 91:

And whereas by Order in Council dated the 12th July, 1887 (S.R. & O., Rev. 1904, IX, Patents, &c., p. 8), Her late Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased to declare that the provisions of Section 103 of the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks Act, 1883 (46-7, V. c. 57), should apply to the United States of America, and it is expedient, on the making of this Order, that the said Order should be revoked:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him in manner hereinbefore recited and of all other powers in that behalf, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The laws of the United States of America confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the United States of America or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928.

2. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928, shall be applicable to the United States of America.

3. The Order in Council dated the 12th July, 1887, is hereby revoked.

4. This Order may be cited as The Industrial Property Convention (United States) Order, 1931.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of June, 1931.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
