

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 10. to Monday March 14 1697.

Corunna, March 9. N. S.

THE Spanish Alliance Pacquet-Boat came in here the 7th Instant, in 8 days from Fal-mouth. Letters from Madrid of the 26th day, the Marquis de Harcourt was arrived there with the Character of Ambassador Extraordinary from France.

Warsaw, March 4. The Meeting at Lowitz being broken up, the Deputies from the Lower-Poland, and from three Palatinates in the Upper-Poland, who were much dissatisfied with the Proceedings and unreasonable Demands of the rest of the Gentlemen of the Rokorz, repaired to Bloni, 5 miles from hence, with the Kings Commissioners, and the Envoy of Brandenbourg, where they agreed to make their Submissions to the King, and an Instrument being drawn up to that effect, and signed by them, they waited this day on his Majesty, and presented the same: But the Primate continues in the opposite Interest, and does all he can to countenance and support the Party who still refuse to own his Majesty, who is so dissatisfied with his Carriage, that his Majesty seems resolved to Treat no farther with him; and intends in few days to begin his Journey to Prussia. We hear from Russemburg, that the Tartars having brought a Convoy of Provisions into Caminic, attempted to make an Incurfion into the Province of Wolbinia, but being hindered by the great Snows which are fallen there, from putting their design in execution, they returned home without doing any great Mischief.

Danzicke, March 8. The King of Poland was expected here in the beginning of this month, but the ill Success of the Meeting at Lowitz has rendered the time of his coming uncertain. We hear, that divers Gentlemen having proposed to draw up several Articles, which they thought necessary for Establishing the Peace of the Kingdom, and for Preserving their Rights and Liberties, others who are in the King's Interest did very much oppose the same, not thinking them proper to be presented to his Majesty, whereupon the Assembly broke up the 26th past in a disorderly manner, and without great Animosities between those of different Opinions. These Advices add, that the Pope and Colledge of Cardinals had writ to the Primate, and to several others of the Chief Nobility and Clergy, to persuade them to submit to the King, and to unite their Forces for the Defence of their Country, and for carrying on the War vigorously against the Turks; and 'tis hoped these Offices of the Court of Rome may at length produce the desired Effect. We have an account from Samogitia, that a Meeting of the Gentlemen was lately held there, in which the Sieurs Ziemsy and Odachowsky, two of the Principal Officers of that Province, being accused of having done several things contrary to the Privileges of their Country, there arose such Heats and Disputes among them, that divers Sabres were drawn, and the Sieur Ziemsy was very much wounded, and the other to avoid their Fury made his escape; Two other Gentlemen having lost their Lives in endeavouring to bring them off.

Vienna, March 5. The Chapter of Osnabrug will now very soon proceed to the Election of a new Bishop: The Emperor supports the Prince of Lorraine's Interest, and besides the Instructions which Count d'Eck, who is gone to assist at that Election on the part of his Imperial Majesty, has in this Affair; Monsieur Van Geblen has been sent into Westphalia to desire the Bishop of Munster, that he would resign his Interest to that Prince. The Count of Stirum is not yet gone for Poland, the bad Weather having obliged him to put off his Journey for some time. We hear from the Frontiers, that the Turks continue in their design to refortifie Vypalanka, and to make a Line along the Savo near Belgrade, for which the Ground was already marked out, in order to begin the same as soon as the Weather will permit. They write from Hermanstadt, that the Deputies of several Cities in Transilvania were assembled there, to agree with Count Rabutin about the Supplies that are demanded of them for the Subsistence of the Forces quartered in that Country.

Francofort, March 12. We are now expecting to hear in few days that the French have evacuated Philipsbourg; and in the mean while 'tis agreed, that the German Garison of that place shall consist in 1000 Men of the Emperor's Forces, the like number to be furnished by the Circle of Franconia, as many by that of Suabia, and 500 by the Circle of the Upper-Rhine.

Hamburgh, March 7. Our last Letters from Stockholm say, the Count de Bilke, Governor of Pomerania for the King of Sueden, was fallen under his