

to which the Colonial Stock Acts, 1877 to 1900, apply by virtue of this Order as if they had been prescribed by the Treasury under that Section:—

(a) Provision must be made by legislation of the Protectorate for the payment out of the revenues of the Protectorate of any sums which may become payable to stockholders under any judgment, decree, rule or order of a Court in the United Kingdom;

(b) The Government of the Protectorate must satisfy the Treasury that adequate funds, as and when required, will be made available in the United Kingdom to meet any such judgment, decree, rule or order;

(c) The Government of the Protectorate must place on record a formal expression of their opinion that any legislation of the Protectorate which appears to the Imperial Government to alter any of the provisions affecting the stock to the injury of the stockholders or to involve a departure from the original contract in regard to the stock, would properly be disallowed, and that no legislation, whereby the control of the Secretary of State over the finances of the Protectorate is impaired, ought to be passed unless and until the Treasury are satisfied that satisfactory arrangements have been made for safeguarding the interests of the stockholders.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of July, 1931.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of February, 1931, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the unions (1) of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Saxelbye with Shoby with a portion of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Grimston with Wartnaby and (2) of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Ab Kettleby with Holwell with the remaining portion of the said Benefice of Grimston with Wartnaby, all of which Benefices are situate in the County of Leicester and in the Diocese of Leicester:

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Cyril, Bishop of Leicester, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the unions (1) of the said Benefice of Saxelbye with Shoby with a portion of the said Benefice of Grimston with Wartnaby and (2) of the said Benefice of Ab Kettleby with Holwell with the remaining portion of the said Benefice of Grimston with Wartnaby duly made their Report to the said

Bishop of Leicester and therein recommended such unions, and the terms for effecting the same, and the said Bishop of Leicester signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

“ And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said unions based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

“ And whereas all of the said Benefices of Saxelbye with Shoby, Grimston with Wartnaby and Ab Kettleby with Holwell are now full, the Reverend Edward Richard Jefferys Nicolls being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Saxelbye with Shoby the Reverend Elgar Hicks being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Grimston with Wartnaby, and the Reverend Thomas Hatfield Birks being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Ab Kettleby with Holwell:

“ Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Cyril, Bishop of Leicester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of Saxelbye with Shoby and a portion of the said Benefice of Grimston with Wartnaby, namely all that portion of the Parish of the said Benefice of Grimston with Wartnaby which is comprised within the area of the Civil Parish of Grimston shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls, under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Saxelbye with Grimston and Shoby,’ but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

“ 2. That the said Benefice of Ab Kettleby with Holwell and the remaining portion of the said Benefice of Grimston with Wartnaby shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls, and one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes, under the style of ‘The United Benefice of Ab Kettleby with Wartnaby and Holwell.’

“ 3. That the Church of the Parish of Ab Kettleby with Holwell shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish of Ab Kettleby with Wartnaby and Holwell.

“ 4. That with the consent of the said Thomas Hatfield Birks (testified by his signing this Scheme) if upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme both of the said two Benefices of Saxelbye with Shoby and Grimston with Wartnaby shall be vacant then the unions shall forthwith take effect, but if upon that day one only of the said two Benefices of Saxelbye with Shoby and Grimston with Wartnaby shall be vacant then the unions shall take effect immediately upon the first vacation thereafter of the other of the said two Benefices of Saxelbye with Shoby and Grimston with Wartnaby, and if upon that day neither of the said two Benefices of Saxelbye with Shoby and Grimston with Wartnaby shall be vacant then the unions shall take effect immediately upon the first vacation of that one of the said two Benefices of Saxelbye with Shoby and Grimston with Wartnaby which shall the later be vacated after that day, and in any case the said Thomas Hatfield Birks if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Ab Kettleby with Holwell shall become the first Incumbent of
