

after the passing of the Colonial Development Act, 1929, and forming part of the public debt of Northern Rhodesia as if Northern Rhodesia were a colony.

2. For the purposes of Section two of the Colonial Stock Act, 1900, the following conditions shall have effect in relation to stock to which the Colonial Stock Acts, 1877 to 1900, apply by virtue of this Order as if they had been prescribed by the Treasury under that Section:—

(a) Provision must be made by legislation of Northern Rhodesia for the payment out of the Revenues of Northern Rhodesia of any sums which may become payable to stockholders under any judgment, decree, rule or order of a court in the United Kingdom:

(b) The Government of Northern Rhodesia must satisfy the Treasury that adequate funds, as and when required, will be made available in the United Kingdom to meet any such judgment, decree, rule or order:

(c) The Government of Northern Rhodesia must place on record a formal expression of their opinion that any legislation of Northern Rhodesia which appears to the Imperial Government to alter any of the provisions affecting the stock to the injury of the stockholders or to involve a departure from the original contract in regard to the stock would properly be disallowed, and that no legislation, whereby the control of the Secretary of State over the finances of Northern Rhodesia is impaired, ought to be passed unless and until the Treasury are satisfied that satisfactory arrangements have been made for safeguarding the interests of the stockholders.

3. This Order may be cited as the Colonial Stock Acts Extension (Northern Rhodesia) Order, 1931.
