

(2) Whereas by reason of the foregoing provisions of this Article an abatement of twenty per cent., is, as from the date when this Order takes effect, to be made in the salary to be paid to the Governor of Northern Ireland out of moneys provided by the Parliament of the United Kingdom under subsection (3) of section thirty-seven of the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, as modified by the Irish Free State (Consequential Provisions) Act, 1922 (Session 2): now, therefore, the deductions to be made under that subsection from the Northern Ireland residuary share of reserved taxes towards the payment of that salary shall be, in the year ending on the 31st day of March, 1932, a sum of eighteen hundred pounds, and in each subsequent year a sum of sixteen hundred pounds.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Economy (Statutory Salaries) Order, 1931, and shall take effect as from the 1st day of October, 1931.

(2) This Order shall apply to Northern Ireland in so far as it deals with any enactment relating to a subject with respect to which the Parliament of Northern Ireland has not power to make laws, but subject to this provision this Order shall not extend to Northern Ireland.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of October, 1931.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the National Economy Act, 1931, it is enacted that during the period of one month after the commencement of that Act (that is to say, the 30th day of September, 1931) His Majesty may, in respect of certain services including education, make such Orders in Council as appear to Him to be expedient for the purpose (among other purposes) of effecting economies in the expenditure falling to be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament:

And whereas it is enacted by the said Act that any such Order may (among other things) make provision for the modification or termination of statutory or contractual rights, obligations and restrictions subsisting at the date when the provisions of the Order take effect:

And whereas it is expedient for the purposes aforesaid that the provisions hereinafter contained should have effect:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the enactment hereinbefore recited and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding anything in subsection (2) of section one hundred and eighteen of the Education Act, 1921, the total sums paid to a local education authority out of moneys provided by Parliament in aid of elementary education may be less than one half of the net expenditure of the authority recognised by the Board of Education as expenditure in aid of which parliamentary grants should be made to the authority, and accordingly subsections (2) and (3) of the said section shall cease to have effect as respects grants in aid of elementary education.

2.—(1) Any agreement made before the 1st day of October, 1931, making provision as to the remuneration to be paid to a teacher in respect of his employment in any place of education in receipt of a grant, or in respect of which a grant is made, out of moneys provided by Parliament may be modified by the authority or persons by whom the remuneration is payable so as to provide that the remuneration shall, as from the date aforesaid, be reduced by an amount not exceeding ten per cent. of the remuneration theretofore provided by the agreement.

(2) For the purposes of this Article, the local education authority by whom any public elementary school is maintained shall be deemed to be the authority or persons by whom the remuneration to be paid to teachers in respect of their employment in that school is payable.

3.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Economy (Education) Order, 1931, and shall have effect as from the 1st day of October, 1931.

(2) This Order shall not extend to Scotland or to Northern Ireland.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of October, 1931.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the National Economy Act, 1931, it is enacted that during the period of one month after the commencement of that Act (that is to say, the 30th day of September, 1931) His Majesty may, in respect of certain services including education, make such Orders in Council as appear to Him to be expedient for the purpose (among other purposes) of effecting economies in the expenditure falling to be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament:

And whereas it is enacted by the said Act that any such Order may (among other things) make provision for the modification or termination of statutory or contractual rights, obligations and restrictions subsisting at the date when the provisions of the Order take effect:

And whereas it is expedient for the purposes aforesaid that the provisions hereinafter contained should have effect:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the enactment hereinbefore recited and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1.—(1) Any revised scheme of scales of salaries for teachers or modification of an existing scheme prepared by an education authority under the Education (Scotland) Act, 1918, which shall be approved by the Scottish Education Department at any time prior to the fifteenth day of November, 1931, shall, notwithstanding the date of such approval, have effect as from the first day of October, 1931.