laszick, March 15. Upon the Advice our Secrecived, that the King of Roland Came, on enceived, that the King of Roland came, on hithinstant, to Mariembourg, they deputed al Persons to wait on his Majesty, and to supefted to night or to morrow at a Country enear this City, where his Majesty will stay ortwo'till all things are put in order for his stan here. It is believed his wager, to but a fhort flay, defigning foon to return to to forward the Preparations against the Campigne, when he intends to appear in the with a confiderable Body of German Forces, ion'd with those of Poland, will make a and Army. Several Deputies from the Palathin Lithuania have waited upon the King, all complain much of the House of Sapieha, hem very defirous of a Diet on Horseback.

Let yet known how far the King may be suble to comply with them in this last particulat: In the mean while our Letters from that Province give us fresh hopes, that the Differences there may be happily composed.

Vienna, March 12. The Duke of Lorraine intends to go hence in a fortnight or three weeks to take possession of that Dutchy, which is restored to him by the Peace. Divers Soldiers arrive daily from the Hereditary Countries to Recruit the Imperial Forces, and a great number of Horses are coming from Bavaria ro remount our Cavalry. We hear from the Frontiers, That Count Herberstein, with a Party of the Imperial Forces had advanced within two Leagues of Temeswaer, but the over-flowing of the Tibisk, occasioned by the late Thaw, had obliged him to return without executing his Defign; And that another Party of our Troops, who went towards Seraglio, were returned with a very great Booty. Prince Lewis of Baden is expected here towards the end of this month from Germany, and 'tis discoursed, that he will Command the Emperor's Army in Hungary the next Summer.

Francsert, March 20. The Commissioners sent by the Elector Palatine to take Possession of the Places refrored to him by the Grown of France, pursuant to the late Treaty, having executed their Orders, are returned to Dussildors, to give his Ele-Ctoral Highness an Account of their Proceedings, We hear from Strasbourg, That the Sieur d'Obretz, being named by the French King to be his Commissioner for adjusting the Dutches of Orleans's Pretentions on the Palatinate, which by the Treaty of Peace are Referred to their Imperial and most Christian Majesty's, parted from that place the first in tant for Paris, to receive his Instructions; from whence he is shortly expected here, part of his Equipages being already come.

Strasbourg, March 25. Great quantities of Can-non, Arms, Provisions, and other Ammunition, are daily brought hither from the Places which are to be Restored to the Emperor and Empire. The day on which they will be Evacuated is not yet fixed, tho' all things are ready in some of them in order thereunto; All that pare of the Fortifications and Bridges at Philipsburg, Hunningen, and Fert Louis, which according to the late Treaty of Peace, were to be rased, being already destroyed: Only the demolishing of the Fortifications of Hombourg, Bitsche, Eberembourg, Kirn, and Mont-Royal, is not yet quite finished ; bus that work being carried on with great diligence, it is not doubted but the same will be perfected in a very short time. In the mean while, the sterday broke the Regiment of Dragoons of Warrigny, of which, the best mounted Troopers were Incorporated into that of Lauterec.
