

the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the said Italian Colonies and Dependencies or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928.

2. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928, shall be applicable to Libia, Eritrea and the Italian Aegean Islands.

3. This Order may be cited as The Industrial Property Convention (Libia, Eritrea and Italian Aegean Islands) Order, 1932.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS provision was made by section forty-two of the Finance Act, 1920, with respect to the stamp duty chargeable on transfers of stock to dealers as defined in that section:

And whereas by virtue of section forty-two of the Finance Act, 1931, there has been substituted for the definition of "dealer" in subsection (3) of the said section forty-two of the Finance Act, 1920, the following definition:—

"The expression 'dealer' means a person who, being a member of a stock exchange in Great Britain, is recognised by the committee of that exchange as carrying on the business of a dealer."

And whereas under the terms of the said section forty-two of the Finance Act, 1931, the substitution aforesaid is subject to the proviso that if His Majesty in Council is pleased to declare that the Parliament of Northern Ireland have so amended the said section forty-two of the Finance Act, 1920, in its application to Northern Ireland as to extend the benefits thereof to all persons who are dealers within the meaning of the foregoing definition, that definition shall thereafter have effect as if for the words "Great Britain" there were substituted the words "the United Kingdom":

And whereas by virtue of section four of the Finance Act (Northern Ireland), 1931, there has been substituted for the definition of "dealer" in subsection (3) of section forty-two of the Finance Act, 1920, in its application to Northern Ireland the following definition:—

"The expression 'dealer' means a person who, being a member of a stock exchange in the United Kingdom, is recognised by the committee of that exchange as carrying on the business of a dealer."

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of the Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared:—

(1) That the Parliament of Northern Ireland have so amended the said section forty-two of the Finance Act, 1920, in its application to Northern Ireland as to extend the benefits thereof to all persons who are dealers within the meaning of the definition contained in section forty-two of the Finance Act, 1931.

(2) That this Declaration may be cited as the "Transfers of Stock to Dealers (Stamp Duty) Declaration, 1932."

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 26th day of November, 1931, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Corton Denham, situate in the County of Somerset, and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Sandford Orcas, situate in the County of Dorset, and both in the Diocese of Bath and Wells:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend St. John Basil Wynne, Bishop of Bath and Wells, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Corton Denham and Sandford Orcas duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Bath and Wells and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Bath and Wells signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Corton Denham and Sandford Orcas are now full, the Reverend Frederick Barton Horspool being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Corton Denham and the Reverend Edward Taylor being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Sandford Orcas:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said St. John Basil Wynne, Bishop of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Corton Denham and the said Benefice of Sandford Orcas shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Corton Denham with Sandford Orcas' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this
