

the Vice-Chancellor for the election, a voting-paper on which shall be specified the latest time by which it must be delivered at the Registrar's Office.

(2) The form of the voting-paper, and the method of recording votes, shall be prescribed by the Vice-Chancellor.

(3) The voting-paper, after being signed by the voter and a witness, shall be delivered at the Registrar's Office by post prepaid or by hand.

(4) An election shall not be deemed to be invalid owing to misdirection or non-receipt of any voting-paper.

(5) The Registrar shall be responsible for the counting of the votes, but the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors shall decide on the validity of any vote which, in the opinion of the Registrar, is in doubt.

(6) The senior in University standing of any candidates for whom an equal number of votes have been given shall be deemed to be duly elected.

(7) The result of the election shall be published in the usual manner, and shall also be announced by the Vice-Chancellor at the next ensuing meeting of Congregation."
