

Parsonage House referred to in Clause 4 of this Scheme) which belonged respectively to the said two Benefices of Irstead and Barton Turf prior to the union of such two Benefices together in each case with any capital sums of money, stocks, securities, and other property being or representing the produce of any sale, redemption, or other conversion of any of such endowments and property shall be annexed in each case to the United Benefice of which the said two Benefices of Irstead and Barton Turf will respectively form part when the said unions take effect.

"7. That with the consent of the said John Gough Poole (testified by his signing this Scheme) if upon the date of the unions taking effect the pension now payable to the said John Gough Poole, as aforesaid, shall still be payable such pension shall be apportioned as follows, that is to say, a portion equal to one-half of such pension shall be charged upon the revenues of the United Benefice of Neatishead with Irstead and the remaining portion of such pension shall be charged upon the revenues of the United Benefice of Smallburgh with Barton Turf.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Norwich has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been proceeded with to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measure against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Norwich.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 16th day of July, 1931, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Ivinghoe, situate partly in the County of Hertford and partly in the County of Buckingham, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Pitstone, situate wholly in the said County of Buckingham, and both in the Diocese of Oxford:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Thomas Banks, Bishop of Oxford, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Ivinghoe and Pitstone duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Oxford, and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, including certain alterations of boundaries affecting the Parish of the said Benefice of Ivinghoe, the Parish of the Benefice of Little Gaddesden, in the said County of Hertford and in the Diocese of Saint Albans, and the Parish of Nettleden, being one of the Parishes of the United Benefice of Potten End with Nettleden, in the said County of Hertford and in the said Diocese of Saint Albans, and the said Bishop of Oxford signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said union and alteration of boundaries, based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices of Ivinghoe and Pitstone are now full, the Reverend Treffrey Harvey being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Ivinghoe,
