2. This Order may be cited as the "Cameroons under British Mandate Order, 1932."

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Earl of Athlone.

Secretary Sir P. Cunliffe-Lister.

Sir Rennell Rodd.

WHEREAS by Section 5 of the Import Duties Act, 1932, it is provided that neither the general ad valorem duty nor any additional duty imposed under that Act shall be chargeable in respect of goods which are shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs to have been consigned from, and grown, produced or manufactured in (a) any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom other than a country to which Section 4 of the said Act applies, or (b) any territory which is under His Majesty's protection and that His Majesty may by Order in Council declare that the said Section 5 shall apply to any territory in respect of which a Mandate of the League of Nations is being exercised by the Government of the United Kingdom as if that territory were a territory under His Majesty's protection:

And whereas Mandates of the League of Nations have been conferred upon His Majesty and are being exercised by His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom in respect of the undermentioned territories, that is to say:—

- (a) the Tanganyika Territory;
- (b) the Cameroons under British Mandate;
- (c) Togoland under British Mandate.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare as follows:—

(1) Section 5 of the Import Duties Act, 1932, shall apply to the above-mentioned Territories as if those Territories were Territories under His Majesty's protection;

(2) This Order may be cited as the Import Duties (Mandated Territories) Preference Order, 1932.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty, by virtue of the authority conferred upon Him by the Copyright Act, 1911 (1 & 2 G. 5, c. 46), and having regard to the provisions of the revised

Berne Copyright Convention of 1908 (Treaty Series No. 19 of 1912), was pleased to make an Order in Council, dated the 24th day of June, 1912 (S.R. & O. 1912, No. 913) (hereinafter called the Principal Order), extending the protection of the said Act to certain classes of works to which protection is guaranteed by the said Convention:

And whereas at Rome on the 2nd day of June, 1928, His Majesty and the Heads of certain Foreign States, having resolved to revise and complete the said Convention, agreed upon a Convention (Miscellaneous No. 11 (1931) (Cmd. 3864)) (hereinafter called the Rome Convention) for the purpose of replacing the said Convention of 1908:

And whereas the said Rome Convention was duly ratified by His Majesty on behalf of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of British India, and notice has been given of the application of the said Rome Convention to all other parts of His Majesty's dominions, including any territories under His Majesty's protection, to which the Principal Order applies:

And whereas Japan has given notice of the application of the said Rome Convention to Korea, Formosa, Japanese Saghalien and Kwantung Leased Territory subject to the reservation mentioned in the Schedule to this Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority conferred upon Him by the Copyright Act, 1911, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Principal Order shall extend to Korea, Formosa, Japanese Saghalien and Kwantung Leased Territory as if those territories were amongst the Foreign Countries of the Copyright Union therein named, subject to the following modifications:—

(a) The provisions of Article 2, proviso (iii) (a) and Article 2, proviso (iii) (c) shall apply as if Korea, Formosa, Japanese Saghalien and Kwantung Leased Territory were included amongst the Foreign Countries named in those provisions.

(b) In the application of the provisions of Article 3 of the Principal Order to works of which the country of origin is Korea, Formosa, Japanese Saghalien or Kwantung Leased Territory the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act and for the commencement of the Principal Order.

(c) In the application to such works of Sections 1 (2) (d) and 19 of the Copyright Act, 1911, the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act in Sections 19 (7) and 19 (8) wherever that expression occurs and the 1st day of August, 1931, for the passing of the Act.

(d) In the application to such works of Section 24 of the Copyright Act, 1911, the date of this Order shall be substituted for the commencement of the Act wherever that expression occurs in Subsection 1 (a) and for the 26th July, 1910, in Subsection 1 (b).

2. This Order shall not apply to that part of the Mandated Territory of Palestine which is known as Trans-Jordan.

3. This Order may be cited as the Copyright Convention (Japanese Territories) Order, 1932.

M. P. A. Hankey.
