

Article 37 of the Importation of Canadian Cattle Order of 1923, for the words:—

“ otherwise than under a further licence to be granted by a local inspector or otherwise than ”

there shall be substituted the following words, namely:—

“ except with the authority and in accordance with the provisions of a licence granted by a local inspector for movement ”.

(3) Imported cattle, sheep, goats or swine shall cease to be deemed imported animals for the purposes of the provisions of the Schedule to the Importation of Animals Act, 1922 (Session 2) or of the provisions of Part IV of the Animals (Landing from Ireland, Channel Islands and Isle of Man) Order of 1923, or of the provisions of Part V of the Importation of Canadian Cattle Order of 1923, after the expiration of the prescribed period of six days detention in the case of cattle, sheep or goats and after the expiration of the prescribed period of twenty-seven days detention in the case of swine.

(4) A Local Authority may, for the purpose of the better execution and enforcement of the provisions of the said Schedule and of the aforesaid Orders insert such conditions as it thinks fit in any authority granted by it for the use of a market as a specially authorised market for the purposes of the said provisions, or for the use of lairs or enclosures for the temporary detention of imported cattle, sheep or goats while awaiting exposure for sale in a specially authorised market. The Local Authority may require the owner or person in charge of animals exposed at a specially authorised market or the person exposing the same, to inform an officer of the Local Authority or the police, at the close of the day, of the names and addresses, if known, of the persons to whom he has sold animals and of the numbers of each class sold to each person, and may require the person who applies for a licence authorising the movement of animals from the market to state the name and address, if known, of the person from whom he purchased the animals.

(5) Without prejudice to any power of revocation of the Minister, a Local Authority may revoke any licence or authorisation granted or issued by it under the aforesaid Schedule and Orders.
