At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1932.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 13th day of October, 1932, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Stubton with a part of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Beckingham, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Lincoln and in the Diocese of Lincoln:

“ Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said Benefice of Stubton with a part of the said Benefice of Beckingham duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Lincoln and therein recommended the union of the said Benefice of Stubton with the Chapelry of Fenton being a part of the said Benefice of Beckingham and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Lincoln signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

“ And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said union based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

“ And whereas the said Benefice of Beckingham is now full, the Reverend John Joseph Gay being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Stubton is at present vacant:

“ And whereas the share of the Patronage of the United Benefice when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect which on a fair and just apportionment would be assignable in respect of the interest of the Patron of the said Benefice of Beckingham would in our opinion be negligible:

“ Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said William Shuckburgh, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“ 1. That the said Benefice of Stubton and a part of the said Benefice of Beckingham namely all that part of the said Benefice of Beckingham which is comprised within the area of the Civil Parish of Fenton shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls and one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes under the style of ‘ The United Benefice of Stubton with Fenton ’.

“ 2. That the Church of the Parish of Stubton shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish and that the Table of Fees for the said Parish of Stubton shall (until revised or
