“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for apportioning the income of the Benefice (being a Rectory) of Thwing, in the County of York and in the Diocese of York, between that Benefice and a certain other Benefice, namely, the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Sculcoates, which said last named Benefice is also situate in the said County of York and in the said Diocese of York:

“Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to each of the said Benefices of Thwing and Sculcoates is vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, and is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being:

“And whereas the present endowments of the said Benefice of Thwing include the sum of £20,824 0s. 8d. Local Loans £3 per centum per annum stock held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for and for the benefit of the Rector for the time being of the said Benefice of Thwing and as part of the endowments of such Benefice:

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said Benefice of Sculcoates is at present insufficiently endowed; and that the said Benefice of Thwing has endowments of such an amount as that after the transfer of endowments hereinafter recommended and proposed shall have been made the said Benefice of Thwing will still be sufficiently endowed:

“And whereas the Right Honourable John, Viscount Sankey, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, has represented to us, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the Cure of Souls within the Parish of Sculcoates aforesaid, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said Benefice of Thwing which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

“And whereas the said Benefice of Thwing is now full, the Reverend Canon Arthur Edward Smallwood being the Rector or Incumbent thereof:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, acting as Bishop of the Diocese within which each of the said two Benefices is situate (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Archiepiscopal Seal), and with the consent of the said John, Viscount Sankey, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the Patron of each of the said two Benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, as from the day of the date at which the said Benefice of Thwing shall from whatsoever cause be next avoided or from the date of the cessation of any charge placed upon the revenues of the said Benefice under the Clergy Pensions Measures, 1926 to 1928, in consequence of the retirement from the said Benefice of the said Arthur Edward Smallwood the sum of £3,333 6s. 8d. Local Loans £3 per centum per annum Stock, being part of the aforesaid sum of £20,824 0s. 8d. Local Loans £3 per centum per annum Stock, shall cease to form part of the endowments of the said Benefice of Thwing and shall be held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for and for the benefit of the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Sculcoates and as part of the endowments of that Benefice.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.
