MERCHANDISE MARKS ACT, 1926.

MERCHANDISE MARKS (IMPORTED GOODS)
EXEMPTION DIRECTION (No. 1), 1933.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 3, sub-section (2) of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, the Board of Trade give notice that in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the said Section 3, they have given a Direction in the following terms:—

Whereas it is provided inter alia by Article 1 of the Merchandise Marks (Imported Goods) No. 3 Order, 1932,* that it shall not be lawful to sell or expose for sale in the United Kingdom any imported goods of the following classes unless they bear an indication of origin:—

- (a) boots, shoes and slippers made of rubber or with rubber soles;
- (b) rubber overshoes, with or without heels; and
- (c) rubber footholds.

And whereas by Article 2 of the said Order it is provided that the indication of origin shall be applied to each boot, shoe, slipper, overshoe or foothold by means of letters in relief impressed prior to vulcanisation as follows:—

- (1) All classes of goods except rubber boots.

On the shank or heel or on a rubber label cemented before vulcanisation to the shank.

- (2) Rubber boots.

(a) On the shank or heel or near the top of the boot on the outside; or

(b) on a rubber label cemented before vulcanisation to the shank or near the top of the boot on the outside.

And whereas by Article 5 of the said Order it is provided inter alia that until the 1st January, 1933, the Order shall not apply to the sale or exposure for sale in the United Kingdom of goods imported before the 9th July, 1932 (the date on which the Order came into force):

And whereas the Board of Trade, being the appropriate Department in this case, having considered representations made to them in that behalf by persons appearing to the Board to have a substantial interest in the matter, are satisfied that the application of the afore-
