

them at their surrender. This Letter having been read in an Assembly of our Magistrates, it was thought fit to make the same publick, and Copies of it have accordingly been given out amongst the Burghers.

Frankfort, May 15. The Count de Boinebourg, Envoy from the Emperor to the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, is on his return hither from that Court, some of his Servants are already arrived: We hear the Landgrave has promised speedily to restore the City of Rhinsfeldt to the Landgrave of Rhinsfeldt; so we hope to see the Places on the Rhine soon restored, that being the only reason the French give for their delaying the Evacuation of the same. The French have now made an end of demolishing the Walls and Fortifications of the City of Kirné according to the Treaty of Peace.

Brussels, May 18. The Elector of Bavaria intends next Tuesday to go hence to meet the Electoral Prince his Son, who is expected here next Saturday from Cologne. Count Montferrol, Envoy Extraordinary from his Electoral Highness to the French Court, is expected here in a few days from Paris.

Hague, May 20. N. S. Last Saturday the States of Holland and Westfrizeland broke up their Assembly for some weeks. This day the States-General had under Consideration the drawing up new Instructions for their Commissioners of Trade at the French Court, concerning the Regulating of the Tariffe, and other Matters which were left undetermined in their late Treaty of Commerce with that Crown. The Dispatches are likewise preparing for Monsieur Hopp, who is appointed to reside at Vienna, and is shortly expected here from Amsterdam. Monsieur Hatterman, Minister from the Elector Palatine, received yesterday an Express from Dusseldorp, with Advice, that the Elector his Master arrived there last Friday from Aix la Chapelle. The Envoy of Portugal, Don Posbico, is expected here again in a month or two from the Imperial Court. The Sieur Cantz, Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburg, having been for some days at Amsterdam, is returned hither; but no day is yet fixed for his Audience of the States. The Duke of Holstein-Ploen is lately arrived here, and goes to-morrow for England.

Paris, May 22. N. S. On the 19th of this month the Earl of Portland and the Earl of Manchester Dined with the Dauphin at Meudon: On the 20th, My Lord Portland, accompanied by divers English Noblemen and Gentlemen, had his Audience of Leave of the Most Christian King at Versailles, to which he was conducted by Prince Camille, Son to the Count d'Armaguac of the House of Lorraine, in the same manner, and with the same Honours as at his first Publick Audience; After which his Excellency had Audience of the Dauphin, the Dukes of Burgundy, Anjou, and Berry, the Dutchess of Burgundy, the Dutchess of Bourbon, and of the two Princesses of Conti; and in the Evening his Excellency went to St. Cloud, and had the like Audiences of the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, the Duke of Chartres, and of Mademoiselle. We have an account, that the Henrietta and Catherine Yachts are come to Calais, being appointed to carry his Excellency to England. The Ambassadors of Holland are preparing for their Publick Entry. We hear one of the Kings Ships will sail forthwith from Port-Louis to Pondichery, on Board which will go the Commissioners, who are to take possession of that Island, which the Dutch are obliged by the Treaty of Peace to restore to this Crown.

Falmouth, May 9. On Saturday last passed by this place to the Eastward the homeward-bound Canary Fleet, under Convoy of His Majesties Ships the Leo and the Lime, and in the Evening sailed hence the Spanish Alliance Pacquet Boat with Two Mails for the Groyn. Last Evening came into Port the Grâce of London, Christopher Elliot Master, with Wines, Brandy, and Prunes, from Bourdeaux for Dublin.

Advertisements.

Discourses upon several Practical Subjects.

By the late Reverend William Payne, D. D. With a Preface, giving some Account of his Life, Writings, and Death. Octavo. Printed for Richard Wilkin at the King's Head in St. Pauls Church Yard.

The History of Portugal from the first Ages of the World to the late great Revolution under King John the 4th, Anno 1640. Written in Spanish by Luis de Fatia y Scafe, Knight of Christ. Translated, and continued to this present time by Joseph Stevens; wherein you have their Wars with the Romans, Spaniards, Moors, &c. their Navigation and first Discoveries of the Indies &c. and whatever is remarkable of that Nation. Printed for W. Rogers and A. Roper in Fleetstreet, J. Harris and J. Nicholson in Little Britain, T. Newbrough in St. Pauls Church Yard, and B. Cockfield in Amen Corner. In Octavo.

On the 12th of the last month between 9 and 10 of night, between the Guild House at St. James's and the Elm Bath, was dropt a Packet with 5 Guinea's in it, two small Keys of a Cabinet and some other small Things. Whoever brings it to Messrs. Crooks, a Post in the Pall-mall shall have Two Guinea's.

On Monday next the 23d Instant, will be sold by Auction the remaining part of the Library of the Reverend Dr. Gabriel Towerson in Latin, Greek, and English Books, with variety of other rich Goods, at the house of Mr. Towerson, near Door of the Crown Tavern over against St. Clements Church Yard in the Strand, beginning exactly at a afternoon, and continuing till 8, and so daily till all the Books and Goods are sold. Catalogues are given gratis at Mr. Gibb's or at the Black Spread Eagle in Westminster, Mr. Rogers under the Piazza of the Royal Exchange, Box Kellers, and at Mr. Towersons at the Place of Sale.

There being a very ancient Market held at Halesworth in Suffolk weekly on every Tuesday; These are to give Notice, That upon the last Tuesday in May Instant, and so yearly upon every 1st of May for ever after, there will be a Bullcock Market, which will be plentifully furnished with all manner of Least Grazing Cattle, both English and Scotch; And to the intent the said Market may begin early in the morning, there will be convenient Pasture provided at reasonable Rates for the Drivers that come before day, and also for the Buyers that shall buy so late that they cannot go away that night.

Hannah Clark, born at Bristol, aged about 23, short in stature, brown Hair, Pockbroken, her Nose and Face red, a red coloured Stuff Gown on, flowered with red and green, and Petticoat of the same, with a black Hair Fringe, went away from her Master Richard Harrington the 14th Instant, and took with her 4 Silver Spoons marked R. H. M. and a Silver Cup weighing about 15 Ounces and an half. Whoever secures the said Hannah Clark, or the said Goods, and gives notice to the said Richard Harrington at the Transport Office on Great Towerhill, shall have 20 Reward, and reasonable Charges.

The Cold Bath near the North end of Grays Inn Lane, London, being of the Nature of St. Mungus in the North, and St. Winifred in Wales, famed for curing most Disorders of the Nerves, Palsies, Rheumatism, Rickets, Weakness in the Joints and Limbs, and other parts of the Body; The said Bath is now made Commodious, as well for the Lame to Bath, as others, with Conveyniency for Lodging and Sweating.

A Commission of Bankrupt being awarded against Samuel Gledhill, late of London, Merchant, all Persons any ways indebted to him are forthwith to pay in their Debts to Benjamin Grave of Spital-fields, Silk Thrower, and Robert Bundy of Lothbury, Factors, Assignees of the said Commission, or to either of them; To whom all said Creditors intending to have benefit by the said Commission are to pay their Contribution-money.

The Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt against George Brimston of Marbleborough in Wiltshire, Grocer, intend to meet on Tuesday the 31th Instant, at 2 afternoon, at Purcell's Coffee-house next the Nag's head Tavern in Cheapside, to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupts Estate; and all such Creditors as have not yet proved their Debts, must then prove the same, and pay their Contribution-money, otherwise they will be excluded.

Taken away the 9th Instant by several Highwaymen between London and Hampstead, two Horses, viz. one a little dark bay Nag above 13 hands high, trot but little, but paces well, and very wide behind, carries his Tail standing up, his Mane and Tail near black, hath little white in the Forehead much like an S. full aged, The other a bright bay Nag above 14 hands high, strong made, the Mane and Tail almost black, hath several Saddle spots, a small speck of white in the Forehead, full aged. Whoever secures them, or either, and gives notice to Mr. Anth. Burrell, Merchant, in Mincing-lane, London, shall have a Guinea for each, and reasonable Charges.