

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Bradford.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 19th day of April, 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Sturry, in the County of Kent, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 7th February, 1933, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 21st day of March next, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the said Civil Parish of Sturry save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, and that burials shall be discontinued therein as follows, viz. :—

STURRY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Nicholas, in the said Parish, and in the Churchyard attached thereto.

Provided that—

(a) In earthen graves now existing in the said Churchyard, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the following persons at their decease, viz., William John Austen, Elvey Pope, Fanny Anne Brooker, Anne Maria Culver, Lucy Clark, Edward Marsh, Mary Mills, Susan Margaret Raby and Frederick William Bird, subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

(b) In the said Churchyard in grave spaces in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the bodies of Mary Pidduck Twyman and Mary Morgan at their decease, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall in either case be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

M. P. A. Hankey.
