

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACTS,
1888 AND 1894.

COUNTIES OF WARWICKSHIRE AND GLOUCESTERSHIRE.

Whereas in pursuance of Section 54 of the Local Government Act, 1888, a representation has been made to the Minister of Health by the Council of the County of Warwickshire, that it is desirable that the common boundary between the Counties of Warwickshire and Gloucestershire should be altered by a Provisional Order under the Act, so as to include in Warwickshire (Stratford-on-Avon Rural District) the Parishes of Admington, Clopton and Quinton, which are at present situate in Gloucestershire (Campden Rural District):

And whereas a Provisional Order for the alteration of the boundary of a County may deal with any of the matters mentioned in Sections 54 and 59 of the Local Government Act, 1888, and may also amend any Local and Personal Act, or repeal alter or amend any Provisional Order made under the Public Health Act, 1875, or made under the Sanitary Acts, and it is proposed that if a Provisional Order should be made upon the representation recited above, the Order should provide for the matters aforesaid:

Notice is hereby given that F. Gregson Williams, Esq., A.M.I.C.E., one of the Inspectors of the Minister of Health, will attend at the Shire Hall, Warwick, on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of September, 1933, a half-past two o'clock in the afternoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the representation of the Council of the County of Warwickshire, and into any valid objection thereto, and whether a Provisional Order should be made by the Minister for carrying into effect the proposals contained in the representation, or such other proposals as he may deem expedient:

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the subject matter of the Inquiry.

I. G. Gibbon,
Assistant Secretary.

Ministry of Health,
Whitehall, London, S.W.1.
