

"The foregoing conditions to be without prejudice to the application of those prescribed by Order in Council dated 4th July, 1895, when deemed appropriate.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of October, 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 1st day of September, 1933, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council, dated the 11th June, 1920, it is provided that the Chaplain of the Royal Hospital School at Greenwich shall receive the full pay and allowances of his rank as Officer of Your Majesty's Fleet, the difference between an amount equal to his half pay and his total emoluments being borne by the funds of Greenwich Hospital:

"And whereas the Royal Hospital School has removed from Greenwich to Holbrook, Suffolk, we are of opinion that the full cost of the appointment should be a charge upon the funds of Greenwich Hospital:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to direct that the funds of Greenwich Hospital shall be charged, as from 27th April, 1933, with the full pay and allowances and retired pay contribution of the Officer actually appointed, during the period of his service in the appointment."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 24th day of August, 1933 (N. 3899/33), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council of the 19th day of December, 1923, to sanction revised rates of extra duty pay for non-commissioned officers and men at Royal Marine Establishments:

"And whereas we consider that the rates of extra duty pay of 1s. 0d. and 6d. a day therein authorised to Military Training Instructors 1st and 2nd class respectively should be extended to Military Training Instructors 1st and 2nd class employed as such afloat in the Flagship of each Battle, Battle Cruiser and Cruiser Squadron of Your Majesty's Fleet:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorise us to make payment accordingly, with effect from the 12th day of August, 1933.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of October, 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 14th day of August, 1933 (L. 5028/33), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 13th day of October, 1922, and by subsequent Orders in Council, to sanction the establishment of a Royal Marine Police Force, and rates of pay and conditions of service therein:

"And whereas we are of the opinion that an allowance should be paid to married men of the Force, when detailed for fire picquet
