

of November, 1933, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of a part or share of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘ the said Benefice ’) of Saint Hilary in the County of Cornwall and in the Diocese of Truro :

“ Whereas four one-sixth parts or shares of and in the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Hilary (that is to say every turn or right of nomination or presentation to the said Benefice which shall occur or arise on a vacancy of the said Benefice happening after the date hereof for ever with the exception of the third and sixth such turn or right of nomination or presentation and of every third and sixth succeeding turn or right of nomination or presentation thereafter) are vested in the Most Noble John Francis Godolphin, Duke of Leeds, as tenant for life free from incumbrances, and the said John Francis Godolphin, Duke of Leeds, is therefore the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice whenever upon a vacancy the right of presentation or nomination falls to the owner of the said four one-sixth parts or shares :

“ And whereas the said John Francis Godolphin, Duke of Leeds, is desirous that the four one-sixth parts or shares of and in the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Hilary, now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Truro (hereinafter called ‘ the said Dean and Chapter ’) and their successors :

“ And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are willing to accept such transfer and in token of such their willingness have executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned :

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Walter, now Bishop of Truro, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or by some or one of them is made necessary :

“ And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Saint Hilary which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Saint Hilary :

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said John Francis Godolphin, Duke of Leeds, being the person whose consent as Patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore

mentioned Acts and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106 (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), with the consent of the said Walter, Bishop of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common or Capitular Seal to be affixed to this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the four one-sixth parts or shares of and in the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Saint Hilary (that is to say, every turn or right of nomination or presentation to the said Benefice which shall occur or arise on a vacancy of the said Benefice happening after the date hereof for ever with the exception of the third and sixth such turn or right of nomination or presentation and of every third and sixth succeeding turn or right of nomination or presentation thereafter) which said four one-sixth parts or shares of and in the said Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage are now vested in him, the said John Francis Godolphin, Duke of Leeds, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter and their successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter and by their successors for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Truro.
