His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to Douglas Hubert Ormond Bishop, in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

On the 5th February, 1934, a heavy fall of roof took place at a point in the workings at the Langwith Colliery, Derbyshire. A stallman was buried under the fallen material but was saved from fatal injury because he was beneath a girder, one end of which remained in position and the other on some of the fallen material. Mr. Bishop, who is the manager of the colliery, took charge of the rescue measures and undertook the most dangerous part of the work. He first raised one end of the girder with a coal-cutter's jack and then (largely with his hands) scraped away the ground from the imprisoned man's feet and hip. After a good deal of manoeuvring the stallman, whose left leg had been fractured, was released. The release took a considerable time and Mr. Bishop was exposed to great risk for an hour and a half. At any time a further fall might have occurred which would have proved fatal to Mr. Bishop and the imprisoned man.

in their district, and those bye-laws shall be binding upon all persons keeping houses in which seamen are lodged and upon the owners thereof and persons employed therein.

(2).—The bye-laws shall amongst other things provide for the licensing, inspection, and sanitary conditions of Seamen's Lodging Houses, for the publication of the fact of a house being licensed, for the due execution of the bye-laws, for preventing the obstruction of persons engaged in securing that execution, for the preventing of persons not duly licensed holding themselves out as keeping or purporting to keep licensed houses, and for the exclusion from licensed houses of persons of improper character, and shall impose sufficient fines not exceeding Fifty Pounds for the breach of any bye-law.

Where any reference is made in these bye-laws to the Clerk, or any other official, such reference shall be deemed to be a reference to the Clerk, or other official, as the case may be, of the Urban District Council of Barry.

2.—A person who shall apply to the Council for a licence shall furnish, on the application form to be supplied by the Council, a true statement of the particulars therein required to be specified.

3.—A person who, not being duly licensed, shall himself or by means of any agent or servant hold himself out as keeping or purporting to keep a licensed house, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and to a further penalty of ten pounds for every day during which he shall continue to do so after conviction for so doing.

4.—A licence shall continue in force (subject to suspension or revocation as in these bye-laws provided) for such period as the Council may determine, and shall be subject to such conditions specified therein or endorsed thereon, and not being inconsistent with the laws, bye-laws, or regulations for the time being in force in the Urban District of Barry, as the Council sees fit and a licensed keeper, or any person employed in a licensed house, shall not commit a breach of, or fail to observe, such conditions.

(a) that, so far as is known, he is a fit and proper person to have charge of a licensed house, or

(b) that, so far as is known, no conviction militating against his competency for the charge of a licensed house has been registered against him in any Police Court within three years immediately preceding such application.

8.—A licence shall not be transferable, and no licensed keeper shall transfer or lend the same to any other person.

9.—If a licensed keeper is convicted for any felony, misdemeanour, or offence against any of these bye-laws, or if the Council is satisfied that a licensed keeper has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or any Acts amending the same, or of an offence under the Aliens Order, 1920, or that a licensed keep or any person employed in his licensed house has permitted drunkenness, gambling, or immoral or fraudulent practice in a licensed house, or has admitted into, harboured, or allowed to remain in, or has neglected to exclude or remove from, a licensed house any thief, reputed thief, prostitute, reputed prostitute, or any person of known immoral or improper character who may be in a licensed house, the Council may suspend for such period as the Council think fit, or revoke, such licensed keeper's licence.

Within seven days after suspension or revocation of a licence the licensed keeper shall deliver his licence to the Clerk, but at the expiration of a period of suspension the licence shall be returned to the licensed keeper.

10.—The Medical Officer of Health, the Senior Sanitary Inspector, any Superintendent or Inspector of the Police Force, any Detective Officer or Police Constable generally or specially authorised for the purpose, any Officer of the Board of Trade, and any other person generally or specially authorised by the Council for the purpose, may at all times, whatsoever, of the day or night enter and inspect any house, and also inspect the Register of Seamen Lodgers hereinafter referred to; and every keeper and every person employed in a house shall give, and cause to be given, every such Officer, Inspector, and all persons aforesaid, free access to his house at all such times aforesaid.

14.—Every licensed keeper shall cause the windows of every bedroom in his house to be kept open between the hours of ten and twelve in the forenoon, or between the hours of two and four in the afternoon, unless prevented by the inclemency of the weather, or the illness of any inmate of such room.

15.—Every licensed keeper shall cause the floors of every room in his house to be thoroughly swept before the hour of ten in the forenoon daily, and all floors which are not covered with carpet to be well and sufficiently washed on Friday in each week, before the hour of twelve noon.

17.—Every licensed keeper shall cause the bed-clothes of every bed in his house to be removed from such bed as soon as conveniently may be after such bed shall have been vacated by any lodger, and shall cause all such bed-clothes, and the bed from which such bed-clothes may have been removed, to be freely exposed to the air for one hour at least in the forenoon or for one hour at least in the afternoon of every day.

18.—Every licensed keeper shall cause every room which may be appointed for use and occupation as a sleeping apartment in his house to be furnished with such number of beds and bedsteads and with such a supply of bed-clothes as may be sufficient for the requirements of the number of lodgers authorised to be received into such room, and he shall cause every sleeping apartment to be furnished with bedsteads and bedding of a size adapted for one person only.

19.—No licensed keeper nor any person employed in a house shall permit or suffer more than one lodger to occupy or sleep in the same bed.

Such licensed keeper shall not, at any time while such lodger is suffering from such infectious disease, cause or allow any other person, except the wife, mother, daughter, father or son of such lodger, or except a person voluntarily in attendance on such lodger, to use or occupy the same room as such lodger.

Where, in pursuance of the statutory provision in that behalf the Council may order the removal of such lodger to a hospital or other place for the reception of the sick, such licensed keeper, on being informed of such order, shall forthwith take all such steps as may be requisite on his part to secure the safe and prompt removal of such lodger in compliance with the order of the Council, and shall, in and about such removal, adopt all such precautions as, in accordance with any instructions which he may receive from the Medical Officer of Health, may be most suitable for the circumstances of the case.

room or rooms of the maximum number of lodgers authorised to be received therein, such licensed keeper after being furnished with the necessary instructions from the Medical Officer of Health, and until the grounds for apprehending the spread of infection shall have been removed, shall cease to receive any lodger in such room or rooms or shall receive therein such number of lodgers, being less than the maximum number, as the exigencies of the case may require.

He shall comply with all instructions of the Medical Officer of Health as to the proper cleansing and disinfection of the room and articles.

When the same shall have been thoroughly cleansed and disinfected in accordance with such instructions, he shall give written notice thereof to the Medical Officer of Health; and, until two days from the giving of such notice shall have elapsed, and unless and until by such cleansing and disinfection the necessary precautions for preventing the spread of disease shall have been duly taken, such keeper shall not cause or suffer any other lodger to be received into the room which, in the case hereinbefore specified may have been exposed to infection.
