

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of August, 1934.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by subsection (1) of Section 238 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, (57 & 58 V. c. 60) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act) it is provided that where it appears to His Majesty that due facilities are or will be given by the Government of any foreign country for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in that country, His Majesty may, by Order in Council stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that that Section shall apply in the case of such foreign country, subject to any limitations, conditions and qualifications contained in the Order:

And whereas by certain Orders in Council made under Section 1 of the Foreign Deserters Act, 1852, (15 & 16 V. c. 26) the dates whereof are specified in the first column of Part I of the First Schedule hereto provisions were made as more particularly appear in the said Orders for the apprehension of seamen who desert from merchant ships belonging to the foreign countries set out in the second column of Part I of the said First Schedule or to subjects of the Rulers of or to citizens of such foreign countries:

And whereas by virtue of the provisions of Section 745 of the principal Act the said Orders in Council are still in force as if they had been made under that Act:

And whereas by an Order in Council made on the 26th September, 1901, it was ordered and declared that Section 238 of the principal

Act should apply in the case of the Republic of Honduras:

And whereas it is expedient that the Orders in Council specified in the said First Schedule should be revoked:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that due facilities are given by the Governments of the foreign countries specified in the Second Schedule hereto for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British merchant ships in those countries:!

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the principal Act and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and doth hereby order and declare, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as "The Deserters from Foreign Ships Order, 1934".

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, (52-3 V. c. 63) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. The Orders in Council specified in the First Schedule hereto are hereby revoked.

3. Section 238 of the principal Act shall apply in the case of each of the foreign countries specified in the Second Schedule hereto with regard to any seaman or apprentice who deserts from a merchant ship belonging to a subject of any such foreign country when within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or any Colony within the meaning of Section 11 of the Statute of Westminster, 1931.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.
