

the Gas Regulation Act, 1920, against a report of a gas examiner.

In these Rules:—

“ Respondents ” shall mean the local authority or the Clerk of the Peace for Quarter Sessions for each area to which the report relates, according to whether the gas examiner was appointed by the local authority or Quarter Sessions; and “ Person appointed ” shall mean the person appointed by the Board of Trade to determine the Appeal.

3. Notice of Appeal, together with the report of the gas examiner or a true copy thereof, shall within twenty-one days from the date of the report be delivered or sent by registered post to the Board of Trade, Great George Street, S.W.1, and a copy of such notice shall at the same time be sent to the Respondents.

4. Notice of Appeal shall state whether the whole or part of the report is complained of, and in the latter case specify such part, and shall be signed by the Appellants or their duly authorised agent, and shall give an address for service of documents.

5. The Appellants shall send to the Board of Trade and to the Respondents, either with their Notice of Appeal or within fourteen days thereafter, a concise statement in writing of the facts upon which they intend to rely and of any representations which they desire to make.

6. The Respondents shall within twenty-eight days of the receipt of such statement send to the Board of Trade and to the Appellants any representations which they desire to make in writing. If the Respondents desire to be heard on the Appeal, they shall within such period send to the Board of Trade and to the Appellants a concise statement in writing, setting out the facts upon which they intend to rely and to what extent the facts alleged in the Appellants' statement are admitted.

7. The Board of Trade will notify the parties of the name and address of the person appointed and if either party desire to be heard a request in writing therefor must be sent to the person appointed within seven days of such notification.

8. If a request under Rule 7 has been made by either party the person appointed shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the Appeal and shall give the parties at least ten days' notice thereof.

9. At the hearing of the Appeal the parties may, subject to the direction of the person appointed, call such evidence as they may think fit.

10. The person appointed may at any time require any party to submit in writing such further particulars as he may think necessary, and may, at any stage of the proceedings allow the amendment of any notice, statement, or particulars upon such terms as he may think fit.

11. The costs of any Appeal, including the costs of any hearing, shall be in the discretion of the person appointed who may direct to and by whom, and in what manner, those costs or any part thereof shall be paid, and may tax or settle the amount of costs to be so paid or any part thereof.

12. The person appointed may, if he thinks fit, and subject to such conditions as he may impose, proceed with the consideration of any

Appeal, notwithstanding any failure or omission by any party to comply with any of the requirements of these Rules, or the non-attendance of any party at any hearing.

Dated this 31st day of December, 1934.
