

the current rate of £900 a year authorised by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 29th day of June, 1934:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 9th day of November, 1934, to sanction, inter alia, as from the 1st day of September, 1934, a consolidated salary for the Chief Constable, Royal Marine Police, of £905 a year, being approximately 9½ per cent. below the standard rate of £1,000 a year:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction, in substitution for the aforementioned consolidated rate of £905 a year, a consolidated scale of salary as from the 1st day of September, 1934, for the Chief Constable, Royal Marine Police, of £905 a year, rising annually, as follows, to £950, to £996, to £1,040 and to £1,085 (maximum):

"Provided that until in the opinion of Your Majesty's Government the state of the national finances permits of the issue of the aforesaid consolidated scale of salary in full, it shall be subject to an abatement, and the Chief Constable, Royal Marine Police, shall accordingly continue to receive a scale of salary corresponding to the scale prescribed by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 5th day of October, 1934.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of February, 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 7th day of January, 1935 (N. 11/35), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Orders in Council of the 13th October, 1920, and of the 24th July, 1925, Your Majesty was graciously pleased to sanction the payment of Training Allowance to certain men of the Royal Navy and of the Royal Marines who have responsibility and charge of Boys and Youths out of instructional hours in ships or establishments administered under the Training Service Regulations, or in Artificer Apprentice Training Establishments:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the duties and responsibilities devolving upon the Instructors of new entries at the three naval depots, and upon the Physical and Recreational Training Instructors of recruits and Band Boys at the Royal Marine Depot, Deal, render them deserving of similar remuneration:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction payment of Training Allowance to these Instructors at the rates, and subject to the conditions laid down for Boys' Instructors, with effect from the 31st December, 1934.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in the foregoing proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of February, 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 8th day of January, 1935 (N. 6368/34), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 11th day of October, 1921, sanction was given to the establishment of the paid non-substantive ratings of Photographer, First Class, and Photographer, Second Class, with pay of 1s. and 6d. a day respectively:

"And whereas we consider that for the greater efficiency of the Photographic Section of Your Majesty's Navy it is desirable to introduce a new paid non-substantive rating for Chief Petty Officers and Petty Officers who are Photographers, First Class, and are selected to undertake the training of Naval personnel in photographic duties:
