

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now therefore I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1871, do hereby order that the Fair which has been held annually at the Fair Ground, Wey Hill, Haslemere, on the 26th day of September shall be abolished.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 19th day of March, 1935.

John Gilmour.
