

of the Governing Body of the said College shall be appointed by His Majesty:

And whereas under the provisions of the said Charter the term of Office of three of the members appointed by His Majesty, viz., the Right Honourable Lord Eustace Percy, the Lord Rayleigh, Sc.D., F.R.S., and Sir Harold Wernher, K.C.V.O., expired on the 31st day of May, 1935, and it is expedient that the last two named should be re-appointed for a further term of office:

And whereas the Right Honourable Lord Eustace Percy does not desire to be re-appointed, and it is necessary that a new member should be appointed in his place:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Lord Rayleigh, Sc.D., F.R.S., and Sir Harold Wernher, K.C.V.O., be re-appointed as members of the Governing Body of the Imperial College of Science and Technology for a further term of four years from the 1st day of June, 1935, and that the Right Honourable Lord Bledisloe, G.C.M.G., K.B.E., be appointed to be a member of the said Governing Body for a term of four years from the 1st day of June, 1935.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June, 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the National Economy (Statutory Salaries) Order, 1931, it was ordered that the abatement provided for by that Order shall be made from the amount, specified in any enactment, of the salary to be paid in respect of any office in His Majesty's Service:

And whereas by the Statutory Salaries (Restoration) Act, 1934, it was enacted that His Majesty may by Order in Council revoke the said Order:

And whereas by the said Act, it was further enacted that while the said Order remains in force, the abatement (including any abatement therein referred to as an "additional abatement") to be made under the said Order from the amount of the salary to be paid in respect of any office shall be one-half of that which would have been thereby required to be made if subsection (2) of section one of that Act had not been passed:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Order should on and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, cease to be in force, and that the abatements thereby provided for should accordingly cease and determine:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the enactment hereinbefore recited and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The National Economy (Statutory Salaries) Order, 1931, is hereby revoked.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Statutory Salaries (Restoration) Order, 1935.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-five.

(3) It is hereby declared that this Order extends to Northern Ireland.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of June, 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 53 of the Supreme Court of Judicature (Consolidation) Act, 1925, it is enacted that His Majesty may from time to time by Order in Council on a report or recommendation made, with the concurrence of the Lord Chancellor, by the Council of Judges of the Supreme Court assembled in pursuance of the provisions of Part X of that Act make, revoke or modify Orders regulating the Vacations to be observed by the High Court and the Court of Appeal and in the offices of the said Courts respectively:

And whereas a Council of Judges of the Supreme Court assembled in pursuance of the said provisions at the House of Lords on Monday, the 20th day of May, 1935, recommended that the Long Vacation for the year 1935 should be shortened so that the Michaelmas Sittings of 1935 should commence on Monday, the 7th day of October:

And whereas the Lord Chancellor concurs in that recommendation:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Michaelmas Sittings of the Court of Appeal and of the High Court of Justice shall in the year 1935 commence on the 7th day of October, and the Long Vacation of the several Courts and offices of the Supreme Court shall for all purposes terminate on Sunday, the sixth day of October of the same year.

2. This Order may be cited as the Long Vacation (1935) Order, 1935.

M. P. A. Hankey.
