

- Miss Isabella Hamilton Sloan, Principal, Ministry of Labour.
- Estecourt Southcombe, Esq. For political and public services in Yeovil.
- Herbert Lawrence Stevens, Esq., F.R.Ae.S., Principal Scientific Officer, Air Ministry.
- Wilfred Francis Tempest, Esq. For public services in the West Riding of Yorkshire.
- David John Thomas, Esq., Chairman of the South East Glamorgan War Pensions Committee.
- Frederick Ebenezer Waters, Esq., Principal, General Post Office.
- John Williamson, Esq., Chief Constable of the Northampton Borough Police.
- Herbert Whesterby Younger, Esq., H.M. Superintending Inspector of Factories.
- To be Members of the Civil Division of the said Most Excellent Order:—*
- Ernest Percy Barnes, Esq., Chief Superintendent, Bristol City Police.
- Captain Sydney Barraclough, Education Officer, Grade III, Air Ministry.
- Harry Perkins Bassil, Esq., Senior Examiner, Estate Duty Office, Board of Inland Revenue.
- Miss Mary Blair. For political and public services in Belfast.
- Gilbert Humphrey Bowles, Esq., Commandant, Metropolitan Special Constabulary.
- Charles Andrew Boyle, Esq., Waterguard Superintendent (2nd Class), Board of Customs and Excise.
- Leopold James Brearley, Esq., Staff Officer, Colonial Office.
- Harry Bridgeman, Esq., Superintendent of Works, Southampton District, H.M. Office of Works.
- Dorothy Amy, Mrs. Fisher-Brown, Secretary to Liberal National Whips since November, 1931. For political services.
- James Brown, Esq. For political and public services in Glasgow.
- Albert Canning, Esq., Superintendent, Metropolitan Police.
- Thompson Close, Esq., Agricultural Machinery Officer, Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries.
- Miss Edith Cooper, lately Head Mistress, City Road Senior Girls' School, Birmingham.
- Herbert Cecil Craft, Esq., Staff Officer, Board of Trade.
- Shemavon Danielian, Esq., Civil Assistant employed under the War Office.
- Miss Margaret Irene Dicker, Woman Administrative Assistant, War Office.
- Alan George Dryland, Esq., M.C., Engineer-in-Charge, London Station, British Broadcasting Corporation.
- William George Dunning, Esq., lately Senior Clerk, Port Sanitary Office, Liverpool.
- Miss Averill Doris Ealls. For voluntary services at the Royal Infirmary and the Royal Children's Hospital, Liverpool.
- Miss Sarah Barbara Forth, lately Principal of the Salisbury Teachers' Training College.
- Hugh Mackay Graham Fraser, Esq., J.P., Headmaster, Scourie Public School, Sutherland.
- Andrew Fullerton, Esq., Accountant, North Eastern Division, Ministry of Labour.
- Captain Leonard Percy Gill, Assistant Engineer, Engineering Department, Northern Ireland District, General Post Office.
- Miss Jean Methuen Graham, Secretary, Scottish Branch, Queen's Institute of District Nursing.
- Lillian Eliza, Mrs. Lovell Harrison. For social services in Hornsey.
- Edward Headen, Esq., Superintendent, Durham Constabulary.
- Miss Caroline Mary Gertrude Jameson. For services to the blind.
- John Jones, Esq., Sanitary Inspector of Newquay Urban District, and Aberayron Urban and Rural Districts, Cardiganshire.
- Miss Mabel Lilian Killpartrick, Clerical Officer, India Office.
- Alderman Jesse Frederick Lee, J.P. For services to Gosport.
- John Lynass Magrath, Esq., Sales Manager, North Midland District, General Post Office.
- Miss Edith Mary Mahlendorff, Superintendent, London Telephone Service, General Post Office.
- Edward Augustus Malby, Esq., F.S.I., Deputy Chief Superintendent, Mapping Branch, Land Registry.
- James Rees-Pedlar, Esq., Chief Designer, Royal Naval Torpedo Factory, Greenock.
- Herbert Conway Potts, Esq., Principal Clerk, Ministry of Pensions.
- Albert George Rawlings, Esq., M.A., until recently Headmaster, Derby Road Central Boys' School, Gloucester.
- George Wright Reid, Esq., Public Assistance Officer for the City of Aberdeen.
- Ethel Annie, Mrs. Great Rex, Chairman of the Woolwich and Greenwich Children's Subcommittee of the South East Metropolitan War Pensions Committee.
- Ethel Gertrude, Mrs. Richards, District Nurse, Porthcawl.
- Miss Mary Naismith Russell, Headmistress, Paisley Special School for Defective Children.
- Frederick Charles Sheldon, Esq., Senior Locomotive Running Inspector, Chief Mechanical Engineer's Department, Swindon, Great Western Railway Company. On the occasion of the centenary of the Railway.
- Henry Horatio Spears, Esq., lately Chief Sanitary Inspector, West Bromwich County Borough.
- Percival John Spratt, Esq., Staff Officer, Scottish Office.
- Miss Ina Amelia Strong, Higher Clerical Officer, Foreign Office.
- Ernest John Sutton, Esq., Staff Officer, Grade II, Ministry of Transport.
- William Baker Thomas, Esq., Senior Staff Officer, Ministry of Health.
- George William Turnbull, Esq., J.P. For services to West Hartlepool.
- Frank Tyrell, Esq., Chief Clerk, Imperial War Graves Commission.
- Albert Harold Wade, Esq., Staff Clerk, Prison Commission.
- Alexander George Webb, Esq., Member of the Ministry of Pensions Special Grants Committee.
- Frederick Wilkinson, Esq., Manager of the Fish, Game, Poultry and English Egg Section of the Co-operative Wholesale Society.
- Miss Elizabeth Williams. For political and public services in Newcastle-on-Tyne.
- Miss Maude Mary Williamson, Assistant County Director and Controller for Northumberland, British Red Cross Society.
- Adam Frank Wilson, Esq., Land Officer, Department of Agriculture for Scotland.