

of the first writs at the last preceding general election, if it shall not have been sooner dissolved:

And whereas by the Saint Lucia (Legislative Council—Extension of Duration) Order in Council, 1935, it is provided that notwithstanding anything contained in Clause XLVII of the Saint Lucia (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1924, the Governor shall not be obliged to dissolve the Legislative Council now existing until the expiration of five years from the date of the return of the first writs at the last preceding general election:

And whereas it is expedient that the duration of the Legislative Council now existing shall be further extended:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of all the powers enabling Him in that behalf is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as the Saint Lucia (Legislative Council—Extension of Duration) Order in Council, 1936.

II. Notwithstanding anything contained in Clause XLVII of the Saint Lucia (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1924, or in Clause II of the Saint Lucia (Legislative Council—Extension of Duration) Order in Council, 1935, the Governor shall not be obliged to dissolve the Legislative Council now existing until the expiration of six years from the date of the return of the first writs at the last preceding general election.

III. His Majesty hereby reserves to Himself, His Heirs and Successors, full power and authority from time to time to revoke, alter or amend this Order as to Him or Them shall seem fit.

IV. This Order shall come into operation forthwith and shall be published in the Saint Lucia Gazette.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of March, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Saint Vincent (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1924, provision was made for the constitution of a Legislative Council in and for the Island of Saint Vincent:

And whereas by Clause XLVII of the said Order it is provided that the Governor shall dissolve the Legislative Council at the expiration of three years from the date of the return of the first writs at the last preceding general election, if it shall not have been sooner dissolved:

And whereas by the Saint Vincent (Legislative Council—Extension of Duration) Order in Council, 1935, it is provided that notwithstanding anything contained in Clause XLVII of the Saint Vincent (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1924, the Governor shall not be obliged to dissolve the Legislative Council now existing until the expiration of five years from the date of the return of the first writs at the last preceding general election:

And whereas it is expedient that the duration of the Legislative Council now existing shall be further extended:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of all the powers enabling Him in that behalf is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as the Saint Vincent (Legislative Council—Extension of Duration) Order in Council, 1936.

II. Notwithstanding anything contained in Clause XLVII of the Saint Vincent (Legislative Council) Order in Council, 1924, or in Clause II of the Saint Vincent (Legislative Council—Extension of Duration) Order in Council, 1935, the Governor shall not be obliged to dissolve the Legislative Council now existing until the expiration of six years from the date of the return of the first writs at the last preceding general election.

III. His Majesty hereby reserves to Himself, His Heirs and Successors, full power and authority from time to time to revoke, alter or amend this Order as to Him or Them shall seem fit.

IV. This Order shall come into operation forthwith and shall be published in the Saint Vincent Government Gazette.

And the Right Honourable James Henry Thomas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.
