COUNTY OF ESSEX.

CORONERS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1926.

Order for the Alteration of Coroners' Districts.

Whereas it is provided by Sub-Section (1) of Section 4 of the Coroners (Amendment) Act, 1926, that the right of any person having power to appoint a franchise Coroner shall cease on the next vacancy in the office which occurs after the passing of the Act and that for all purposes relating to Coroners the area in which the franchise Coroner had jurisdiction shall thereupon if and so far as it is not situated in a Borough the Council of which have power to appoint a Borough Coroner be merged in the County:

And whereas by Sub-Section (2) of the above mentioned Section it is provided that where the area in which a franchise Coroner had jurisdiction is merged in a County which is divided into Coroners' Districts any consequential alteration in the division of the County into Coroners' Districts shall be effected in manner provided by the Act:

And whereas by Section 12 of the said Act it is provided that a County Council may at any time submit, after complying with such requirements as to notice and consideration of objections as may be prescribed, to the Secretary of State a draft Order providing for such alteration of any existing division of the County into Coroners' Districts as appears to them to be suitable: and that the Secretary of State after taking into consideration any objections to the draft Order made in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time may make an Order either in the terms of the draft submitted to him or with such modifications as he thinks fit:

And whereas a vacancy has occurred in the office of franchise Coroner for the manor of Writtle and Roxwell within the Administrative County of Essex no part of which is situate in a Borough the Council of which have power to appoint a Borough Coroner, whereby the said District has for all purposes relating to Coroners merged in the said County:

And whereas the Council of the said County has pursuant to Section 12 of the said Act and to the Coroners (Orders as to Districts) Rules, 1927, submitted to the Secretary of State a draft Order providing for the alteration of the existing division of the County into Coroners' Districts:

Now therefore in pursuance of the power vested in me by Section 12 of the said Act, I hereby order that the two existing Coroners' Districts known as the Eastern District and the Southern and Western District shall cease to exist and that the two Coroners' Districts named and constituted as set out in the Schedule to this Order shall be substituted therefor.

This Order shall come into operation on the first day of October, 1936, provided however that nothing herein contained shall affect the proceedings at any inquest begun by a Coroner before that day.

Given under my hand at Whitehall this fifteenth day of September, 1936.

(Signed) John Simon,

One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.
