

(e) Transportation by land, air, or water, and the control of the transport of persons and things;

(f) Trading, exportation, importation, production, and manufacture;

(g) Appropriation, control, forfeiture, and disposition of property, and of the use thereof;

(h) The infliction of fines upon bodies of persons or upon corporations and the forfeiture and destruction of property as punitive measures whether actual offenders can or cannot be identified;

and may by such Regulations authorise the trial by Civil Courts (including Courts of Summary Jurisdiction) or such military courts as may be established by the Regulations, of persons committing offences against the Regulations or any other offences under the law for the time being in force in Palestine, and the infliction by any civil courts or by any military courts established as aforesaid of such punishments as may be prescribed, in the case of offences against the Regulations, by the Regulations, or, in the case of other offences, by the law for the time being in force:

Provided that no such Regulation shall have the effect of diminishing any powers exercisable by officers of any of His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces or other persons acting in their behalf, and that nothing shall be done under any such Regulation which shall be prejudicial to the action of His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces.

(2) The procedure and practice of military courts established by Regulations made under this Article may be determined by Regulations under this Article or by such authority and in such manner as the Regulations may prescribe.

(3) Regulations under this Article may make provision for appeals from judgments or orders of military courts established as aforesaid or may provide that there shall be no such appeal.

(4) Regulations under this Article may make provision that judgments, orders and proceedings of such military courts shall not be called in question, whether by writ or otherwise, or challenged in any manner whatever by or before any court.

(5) For the purpose of the trial of a person for an offence against such Regulations by a Court of Summary jurisdiction and the punishment thereof, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place in which the same actually was committed or in any place in which the accused person may be.

(6) The High Commissioner may make Regulations prescribing

(i) The manner in which compensation payable under Article V (10) of this Order is to be determined and

(ii) The price or the manner of determining the price at which, and the conditions under which, any property taken under Article V (7) may be sold.

(7) Any provision of any Law of Palestine which may be inconsistent with any Regulation made under this Article shall be suspended and of no effect during the continuance of such Regulation."

III. Paragraph (5) of Article V of the Principal Order is hereby amended by substituting for the words "cause any buildings to be pulled down and removed, and any property to be removed from one place to another, or to be destroyed" the words "cause any building or other property of any kind whatsoever to be removed from one place to another or destroyed in such manner as he shall think fit".

IV. Paragraph (15) of Article V of the Principal Order is hereby revoked.

V.—(1) The following Articles are hereby inserted in the Principal Order immediately after Article V thereof:

"V.A. The High Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, by Proclamation delegate to the General Officer Commanding the Forces in Palestine all or any of his powers under Articles IV and V of this Order".

"V.B. Regulations made under this Order shall have effect as if enacted in this Order and where any Regulations made by the High Commissioner or by any person to whom he shall have delegated power to make Regulations under this Order purport to have been made under this Order, they shall be deemed to have been lawfully so made and their validity shall not be called in question in any court of law or in any other manner whatsoever, and all Regulations which purport to have been made by the High Commissioner or by a person to whom he has delegated power to make Regulations under this Order shall be presumed, unless the contrary be shown, to have been made by the High Commissioner or by such a person as aforesaid as the case may be".

(2) Article V.B as set out in the preceding paragraph shall apply to all Regulations under the Principal Order whether made before or after the date upon which this Order comes into operation:

Provided that this paragraph shall not affect any judgment or order of any court given or made before that date.

VI. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, or add to or amend this Order.

Alexander Hardinge.

The Home Secretary gives notice that in pursuance of Section 2 (1) of the Employment of Women, Young Persons and Children Act, 1920, he has made an Order authorising the employment on two day-shifts of women and young persons over 16 years of age in the envelope making, printing, cutting and cementing departments at the Mead Works of Messrs. A. B. Swain & Co. Ltd., Gas House Lane, Hertford, subject to conditions as to weekly alternation of shifts, accommodation for clothing, facilities for washing and for taking meals, and that transport facilities may be required.

Whitehall,

24th September, 1936.