*Earl Marshal's Office,
8, Buckingham Gate, S.W.1.
October 12th, 1936.*

THE Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, &c., which are to be worn by the Peeresses at the Coronation of His Most Sacred Majesty King Edward the Eighth.

These are to give notice to all Peeresses who attend at the Coronation of His Majesty that the robes or mantles appertaining to their respective ranks are to be worn over the usual full Court dress.

That the robe or mantle of a Baroness be of crimson velvet, the cape thereof to be furred with miniver pure, and powdered with two bars or rows of ermine (i.e., narrow pieces of black fur); the said mantle to be edged round with miniver pure two inches in breadth, and the train to be three feet on the ground.

That the robe or mantle of a Viscountess be like that of a Baroness, the cape to be powdered with two rows and a half of ermine, the edging of the mantle two inches as before, and the train a yard and a quarter.

That the robe or mantle of a Countess be as before, the cape to be powdered with three rows of ermine, the edging three inches in breadth, and the train a yard and a half.

That the robe or mantle of a Marchioness be as before, the cape to be powdered with three rows and a half of ermine, the edging four inches in breadth, the train a yard and three-quarters.

That the robe or mantle of a Duchess be as before, the cape to be powdered with four rows of ermine, the edging five inches broad, the train two yards.

NORFOLK,

Earl Marshal.

NOTE.—The wives or widows of Peers, and Peeresses in their own right, whose highest dignity is in the Peerage of Scotland or Ireland, will wear robes of such dignity.

The precedence of the widow of a Peer who has remarried with a Peer of lower degree is that of her last husband.
