

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of October, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 15th day of October, 1936 (N. 4591/36) in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Orders in Council of 29th January, 1929 and 1st October, 1932, authorised payment of extra duty pay to certain Royal Marine ranks when organised in service units:

“And whereas we consider it desirable that extra remuneration should be paid for certain other appointments in the units, viz. :—

	s. d.
Senior Clerk	1 0 a day.
Second Non-commissioned Officer, Slinging Detachment ...	6 a day.
Storeman	6 a day.
Draughtsman	6 a day.

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorise the payment of extra duty pay accordingly.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of October, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 37 of the Merchant Shipping (Safety and Load Line Conventions) Act, 1932, it is enacted that His Majesty, if satisfied that the Government of any country has acceded to the Safety Convention, may, by Order in Council, make a declaration to that effect:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the Government of Panama has acceded to the Safety Convention:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers vested in Him by the aforesaid

Section and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare and doth hereby declare that the Government of Panama has acceded to the Safety Convention.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of October, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 1 of the Foreign Judgments (Reciprocal Enforcement) Act, 1933, His Majesty, if He is satisfied that, in the event of the benefits conferred by Part I of the said Act being extended to judgments given in the superior courts of any foreign country, substantial reciprocity of treatment will be assured as respects the enforcement in that foreign country of judgments given in the superior courts of the United Kingdom, is empowered to direct by Order in Council that Part I of the said Act shall extend to that foreign country and that such courts of that foreign country as are specified in the Order shall be deemed to be superior courts of that country for the purposes of the said Part I:

And whereas by Section 3 of the said Act it is provided that Rules of Court made for the purposes of this Act shall have effect, subject to any such provisions contained in Orders in Council made under Section 1 of the said Act as are declared by the said Orders to be necessary for giving effect to agreements made between His Majesty and foreign countries in relation to matters with respect to which there is power to make rules for the purposes of this Act:

And whereas a Convention, a copy whereof is set out in the Schedule to this Order, relating to the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments, signed at Brussels on the 2nd day of May, 1934, has been ratified by His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Belgians:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that, in the event of Part I of the said Act being extended to judgments given in the superior courts of Belgium, substantial reciprocity of treatment will, under the terms of the said Convention, be assured as respects the enforcement in Belgium of judgments given in the superior courts of the United Kingdom; and is accordingly minded to direct that Part I of the said Act shall extend to Belgium:

And whereas it is expedient to specify the Courts in Belgium which are, for the purposes of this Act, to be deemed to be superior courts, and further in order to give effect to the said Convention, to make certain provisions in relation to matters with respect to which there is power to make Rules of Court for the purpose of the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of His powers under the said Act, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

(1) This Order may be cited as “The Reciprocal Enforcement of Foreign Judgments
