Warsaw, Sept. 30. N. S.

OUR last Letters from the Army give an Account, That a Council of War being held, it was judged impracticable to execute any Enterprize of Moment this Campagne, the Season being so far advanced; and that the King had thereupon resolved to send his Troops into Winter-Quarters, and to post part of them about Caminiec, so as to block up that Place during the Winter, in order to lay Siege to it early the next Spring, in case a Peace with the Turks be not concluded before that time. The King designs to go in a short time to Lithuania, to settle the Affairs of that Duchy, and afterwards to call a General Diet to meet at Warsaw.

From the Imperial Camp near Berzkerk, Septemb. 22. Prince Eugene of Savoy marched some days ago from the Camp with part of the German Horse, to intercept a Convoy which he had Advise the Turks were sending to Temiswar, and advanced into the Neighbourhood of that Place, where having posted his Forces in a Wood, he sent out a Party of Hussars to get Intelligence of the Enemy's Motions; But one of this Party deserted, and gave notice of his Design to the Enemy, who thereupon sallied out of the Town with 2000 Horse, and fell upon our advanced Guards; Prince Eugene being informed thereof, sent several Squadrons of Horse to their Relief, who soon beat the Enemy back. In this Action divers of the Turks were killed and taken Prisoners, and the Germans likewise suffered some loss; and Count Esterhazy, a Captain in the Regiment of Passy, venturing too far among the Enemy, as our Forces were in pursuit of them, was taken Prisoner. Prince Eugene continued there some time, but hearing no News of the said Convoy, and judging that upon notice of his March 'twas countermand'd, he returned to the Camp the 20th instant. We have Advice from the Turkish Army, that they continue near Belgrade, that the Convoy designed for Temiswar halted on this side the Danube: expecting further orders, and that the Turks have left off building a Bridge over the Sava, which was only a feint to draw our Forces that way, to the end the said Convoy might march without any Disturbance to Temiswar.

Vienna, Octob. 1. My Lord Paget's Secretary set out from hence this day for Belgrade with an Answer to the Message he brought from thence, and to acquaint the Turkish Ministers, that the Ambassadors from the Emperor and the Republick of Venice are ready to depart for Peter-Waradin; whether they intend to begin their Journey in a day or two; And the Czar of Muscovy's Plenipotentiary is gone before. Signior Loredano, who is come to reside here as Ambassador from Venice, is preparing for his Publick Audience, which he will have in a few days. Signior Paulucci, who has resided in Poland with the Character of Nuncio Extraordinary from the Pope, is come hither to treat with this Court about the Fiefs in Italy, and as soon as that Affair is adjust'd, he will return to Rome. Some Recruits are pass'd by this place going to the Imperial Army in Hungary, which according to our last Advices from thence continues encamped near Berzkerk, and the Turks near Belgrade.

Strasbourg, Octob. 8. The French have removed all the Artillery and Ammunition that were a Brisac to Strasbourg, but have yett lined no day for the Evacuation of that Place. The Sieur Obricht is daily expected here from Strasbourg, to confer with the Elector Palatine's Ministers who are already arriv'd at this Place concerning the Pretensions of the Duke of Orleans on the Palatinate. The Diet of the Circle of the Upper Rhine is to meet shortly to consider of the Supplies to be given for maintaining the Garison of Philipsbourg, and what Quota of Men each City shall furnish for Garisoning that Place, the Forces that are there at present being only lent by the Emperor and the Elector of Mentz.

Gour, Octob. 12. On Wednesday last, in the evening, the Elector of Hanover arriv'd here with his youngest Brother Prince Ernest Augustus, and they waited on the King, who received them with great Marks of Esteem and Affection. Last Friday my Lord Lexington came to this Place from England. Mr. Steepley, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Elector of Brandenbourg, who came hither some days ago from Berlin, and brought Letters to His Majesty from that Elector, is returned with a Compliment from His Majesty to His Electoral Highness. The King has received a Compliment from the Duke of Wolfenbuttel by General Bernstorff, and from the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel by Monsieur Terteau. His Majesty intends to go from hence on Friday next to Cell, where His Majesty will continue 2 or 3 days, and then return to Loo.

Brussels, Octob. 12. The Count de Tirimont, and the Sieur Brockhoven, who are appointed on the part of His Catholic Majesty to Treat with the French Commissioners for Regulating the Limits of the Dominions of the two Crowns in the Netherlands, have received full Powers from Madrid in the Form which the French desired, and they will go in a few days to Lisse to renew the Conference there, which were discontinued by reason of some Defects in their former Commissions. The Elector of Bavaria is gone to Mons to view the Fortifications of that Place. The Commissaries of War are sent to take a Review of the Spanish Forces in the several Places where they are Quartered in the Netherlands.

Hague, Octob. 14. The States of Holland and West-Friseland are to meet to-morrow. The Great Council of War, which has been assembled here some time, separated yesterday for a few days. Monsieur d'Orlyke is shortly expected home from his Embassy to the French Court. The Count de Frise, Ambassador from Denmark, is preparing for his Publick Entry, which he designs to make this week. The Count de Denhof is expected here in a short time from Berlin, being to reside at the Court of England as Envoy from the Elector of Brandenbourg in the Room of the Baron d'Obrezinsky, who is recalled.

Paris, Octob. 15. N. S. The Marriage of Mademoiselle to the Duke of Lorraine was celebrated at Fontainebleau the 13th Instant, the Duke d'Elbeuf being that Prince's Proxy. The same evening Mademoiselle returned hither, accompanied by the Duke and Dutcheff of Orleans, the Duke d'Elbeuf, and the Princeffs of Lisbonne. The two latter are to accompany her in her Journey to Lorraine, which she will begin to-morrow; An Officer, and 30 of the King's Guards, are ordered to attend her, and the King defrays the Charges of her Journey through his Dominions. The Count d'Armagnac, the Chevalier de Lorraine, and Count Marfan, who are all of the family of Lorraine, are gone Post, in order to be with the Duke of Lorraine when he meets his Dutcheffs, which will be at Barr.

Dublin, October 1. This day the House of Commons read for the first time a Bill for Confirming the Estates and Possessions held and enjoyed under the Acts of Settlement and Explanation. Then the Committee appointed to draw up their Address of Thanks to the Lords Justices for their Speech, presented the same, which was read and agreed to by the House; They ordered such of the Members as are of the Privy-Council to wait on the Lords Justices, and know when they would be attended with it. 'Twas ordered, That Leave should be given to bring in Heads for two Bills; One for Enlarging the Gate Gate called Dames Gate, and making the Passage more easie; and the other for Encouraging of Plantations and Improvements in this Kingdom. After which, the Members who attended the Lords Justices reported to the House, that their Excellencies had appointed Five a Clock this Afternoon; And the House with their Speaker went accordingly to the Castle, and presented their Address to the Lords Justices, as follows.

To their Excellencies the Lords Justices General, and General Governors of Ireland;

The Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesies in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellencies,

WE the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesies, in Parliament assembled, being the Representatives of a People restored to the free Exercise of their Religion, and Enjoyment of their Civil Rights, Liberties and Properties by His Majesty's Courage and Conduct, are desirous to lay hold on every Opportunity to express the Sense and Gratitude of our Hearts for those inestimable Benefits. And it is a great Addition to our Happiness to be assured by your Excellencies, that (as His Majesty has been pleased already to pass several excellent Acts in this Parliament, so) there will Bills be laid before us this Session, which may secure us a firm Establishment and Prosperity for the future: Such Laws we have long wanted, and wished for; but it is reserved to His Majesty's Goodness alone to be the Author of them to us.

We pray Leave to assure your Excellencies, That we shall heartily endeavour to establish a Linnen and Hempen Manufacture here, and to render the same Useful to England, as well as Advantageous to this Kingdom; and that we hope to find such a Temperament in respect to the Woollen Trade here, that the same may not be Injurious to England.

And as we have to our utmost Abilities granted Supplies, which have hitherto with Honour supported and defrayed the Expence of the Establishment, we shall again take the same into our Consideration when laid before us, and come to such Resolutions thereon, as become Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

We are sensible how necessary the erecting Barragues is for easing the Country of Quarters, and pray your Excellencies the same may be proceeded on.

And that His Majesty may effectually receive those Aids already granted him by this Parliament, we shall take into our Enquiry, through whose Defaults or Remissions the present Poll hath been so slowly paid and answered into the Treasury. And by all dutiful Deportment, will continue to deserve the Character your Excellencies with great Truth have represented us under to His Majesty, of being a People zealous for His Majesty's Service, and firm in our Loyalty to the Crown of England; for which Justice done us, we owe, and wish all Acknowledgments return your Excellencies our most humble and hearty Thanks.

To which their Excellencies returned the following Answer.

Gentlemen,

There are so many Expressions of Loyalty and Zeal for His Majesty's Service in your Address, that We receive it with great Satisfaction; and are very glad, that by representing it to His Majesty we shall confirm in Him the good Opinion He hath of your Intentions for His Service, and the Prosperity of this Kingdom.

Perisnouch, O Feb. 9. Sir Claudesly Shovel, Admiral of the Blue, came yesterday to Spithead with His Majesty's Ships under his Command from the Downs.

Printed by Edw. Jones,

These are to give notice, That the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have ordered Money to be paid of the Hands of Tho. Hall Esq. (pursuant to the late Act of Parliament in this behalf) for Payment of all such Tallies of Pro or Assignment, or other Tallies levied on the Hereditary and Temporary Excise, as bear Date on or before the last Day of July, 1696. and that the Persons concerned may repair to the Excise-Office for the Satisfaction of their said Tallies, the Money having been ready and referred for them since the 6th Instant, from which time His Majesty is not liable to pay any further Interest upon the said Tallies.

Whereas a Letter was lately sent to the Lord Mayor, and another to a Person living in Goodman's-Fields, with a petition directed to the Lords Justices; If the Person that writ the said Letters do come in and make a Discovery of the Matters therein contained, he shall have a due Encouragement.
