

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as the Northern Rhodesia (Native Reserves) Amendment Order in Council, 1936.

2. The Schedule to the Principal Order is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) By the deletion from the description of the Chewa Reserve of the words

“Starting from the point on the Anglo-Portuguese Boundary where it intersects the Kapoche River (Beacon XXII), the Boundary shall follow the Kapoche River in a North-Westerly direction to its confluence with the Chiwuyu Stream;”

and by the substitution therefor of the following

“Starting at Beacon XIX on the Anglo-Portuguese Boundary the boundary shall pass in a Northerly direction to the confluence of the Chiwuyu Stream with the Kapoche River;”

(b) by the deletion from the description of the Nsenga Reserve of the words

“the point where the Anglo-Portuguese boundary intersects it (Beacon XXII); thence it shall follow the Anglo-Portuguese boundary to the point of starting.”

and by the substitution therefor of the following

“its confluence with the Chiwuyu Stream thence in a Southerly direction to Beacon XIX on the Anglo-Portuguese Boundary, thence it shall follow the Anglo-Portuguese Boundary to the point of starting.”

3. His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Council, may at any time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

4. This Order shall come into operation forthwith and shall be published in the Northern Rhodesia Gazette and the Governor or other Officer for the time being Administering the Government of the Territory of Northern Rhodesia shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places and in such manner and for such times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto.

And the Right Honourable W. G. A. Ormsby-Gore, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary direction herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of December, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Marquess of Zetland.
Lord Chamberlain.
Secretary Sir John Simon.
Mr. Secretary Elliot.

WHEREAS by the Merchant Shipping (Hong Kong) Order, 1936 (in this Order referred to as “the Principal Order”) the provisions of the Merchant Shipping (International Labour Conventions) Act, 1925 (in this Order referred to as “the Act”) were applied to British ships registered in Hong Kong (in this Order referred to as “the Colony”) in like manner as they apply to ships registered in the United Kingdom but subject to the modifications and adaptations specified in the principal Order:

And whereas it is expedient that the principal Order should be amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Article 1 of the principal Order is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (4) shall be deleted;

(2) the following paragraph shall be inserted after paragraph (4):

“(5) The provisions of section 1 of the Act shall apply to any River Steamer as defined by Section 2 (1) of the Merchant Shipping Ordinance, 1899, of the Legislature of the Colony, but the provisions of Sections 2, 3 and 4 of the Act shall not apply to any such steamer”.

2. This Order may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Hong Kong) (Amendment) Order, 1936.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of December, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by subsection (1) of section 26 of the Air Navigation Act, 1936, it is provided that His Majesty may by Order in Council apply in relation to the Secretary of State for Air, with any necessary modifications or adaptations, the enactments set out in Part I of the Fourth Schedule to this Act, so as to confer on that Secretary of State all such powers, rights and privileges in relation to the acquisition and holding of land for the purpose of discharging any of his functions, and in relation to the management, use and disposal in any manner of land acquired for that purpose, as under the said enactments are, by virtue of any Order in Council made under section thirteen of the Air Force (Constitution) Act, 1917, as amended by this Act, for the time being vested in the Secretary of State for Air in relation to the acquisition and holding of land for the use of the Air Force or for Air Force services or purposes, and in relation to the management, use and disposal of land acquired for use of the Air Force or for Air Force services or purposes, and that an Order in Council made under that subsection may provide that any enactment applied by the Order shall be deemed always to have been so applied:

And whereas the enactments set out in Part I of the Fourth Schedule to the Air Navigation Act, 1936, are the enactments hereinafter mentioned:
