

Venna, Octob. 13. The Imperial Court continues at Ebersdorf, but will return hither in a few days. Signior Paulucci, the Pope's Nuncio Extraordinary, has had divers Conferences with the Emperor's Ministers, touching the Fiefs in the Ecclesiastical State which the Emperor lays claim to, and so soon as he has adjusted these Matters, he will return to Rome.

Francfort, Octob. 18. The Elector Palatine is returned from Schwerzingen to Weynheim, and intends in a few days to visit his Territories along the Rhine. The French Commissioners for adjusting the Pretensions of the Dutchess of Orleans upon the Palatinate are shortly expected here, some of their Servants being already arrived. They write from Mentz, That the Commander of that Garrison has taken a Review of the same, and that a very severe Order has been published there for punishing Deserters. The Elector of Mentz is expected there in a short time from Aschaffembourg.

Hambourg, Octob. 21. This day the Commissioners from the Directors of the Circle of the Lower Saxony, met at the House of Count d'Eck, who resides here on the part of the Emperor, to enquire into the Pretensions of the Dukes of Schwerin and Strelitz to the Succession of the late Duke of Mecklembourg Gustrau, who died without Heirs; and after they have finished this Affair, they intend to proceed on that of enquiring into the Disorders of this City, pursuant to the Commission they have from the Emperor in that behalf. The Burghers seem much concerned at it, and yesterday assembled about Noon, and sat till 4 this Morning, when they adjourned for 3 weeks, having renewed their former Resolution, not to submit to this Commission, which they look upon as prejudicial to their Rights and Liberties. They write from Copenhagen, that Monsieur Ehrencreon is gone from thence for Madrid, being appointed by the King of Denmark to be his Envoy Extraordinary at that Court. The Count de Mellin, whom the King of Sweden has lately made Governor of Pomeran, took possession of that Government, and made his Publick Entry at Srettin the first Instant. We have Advice from Berlin, that Mr. Stepney, His Majesty of Great-Britain's Envoy Extraordinary to the Elector of Brandenburg, is returned thither from the Court, where he has been to wait on the King his Master. Our last Letters from Poland say, the Forces of that Kingdom are going into Winter-Quarters, except 10000 Germans who are ordered to march into Lithuania, and that the King of Poland was returned to Lemberg, (where his Council had been several times assembled,) and was preparing for his Journey to Grodna, to prevent the intended Meeting of the Gentlemen of Lithuania in that City which might be of ill consequence at this time, and to settle the Affairs of that Dutchy. The Queen-Dowager of Poland, and Prince Constantine her Son, are gone from Javarow on their Journey for Rome.
