UNIVERSITY OF ST. ANDREWS.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, The University of St. Andrews, desire respectfully on the occasion of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne to offer this expression of our constant loyalty.

From the distant days of our Foundation, the association of our ancient University with the Throne has been continuous and remains a source of pride and inspiration to us.

We would offer also our loyal service to Your Gracious Consort, Her Majesty the Queen, who, in 1929, added to the honours borne by the University in accepting the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws, thereby maintaining the traditional attachment of her family to our home of learning.

We know Your Majesty's vital interest in the manifold problems which confront the world to-day and we promise that our University will loyally play her part in supporting Your Majesty's efforts to solve these difficulties. We have confidence that Your Majesty's devotion to duty will secure happiness for your people and will bring to you the reward of their lasting affection.

This most ancient of the Universities in Scotland, charged with the responsibility of guiding the ideals and fostering the hopes of youth, welcomes especially Your Majesty's thought for the youth of the Empire and rests assured that this interest so steadfastly and so graciously evinced, will be maintained amid Your Majesty's onerous duties of rule and governance.

We present to Your Majesty and to Her Majesty the Queen, our heartfelt allegiance. We pray that God may grant Your Majesties a long and happy reign and may enable you to exercise a gracious influence for peace and goodwill in the Empire and throughout the world.

(Sgd.) STANLEY BALDWIN, Chancellor.

It gives me great satisfaction to receive the loyal Address from the most ancient of the Scottish Universities.

IN our high privilege of direct access to the Person of the Sovereign, we, Your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, representing the University of Glasgow, do now humbly approach Your Majesty that we may tender our homage and steadfast devotion on the occasion of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne of Your Royal Fathers.

The University of Glasgow was founded in the year of Our Lord fourteen hundred and fifty-one under the favour of Your Majesty's Royal Ancestor, James II, King of Scots. While strongly beholden to the goodwill of that chivalrous Prince and to the continued patronage of his Royal Successors, we have also in these later years enjoyed in notable measure the generous recognition of Your Royal House. The august Names of King Edward VII, of King George V, and Queen Mary are inscribed upon our Roll of honoured graduates; and we recall with grateful pride that Your Majesty when Duke of York, and Her Royal Highness
