

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 13th day of April, 1937.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the University of Durham Act, 1935, Commissioners are constituted styled The University of Durham Commissioners:

And whereas it is further enacted in the Act aforesaid that "the powers of the Commissioners shall continue in force until the end of the year nineteen hundred and thirty-six and no longer: Provided that His Majesty in Council may, on the application of the Commissioners, continue their powers for such period as His Majesty may think fit, but not beyond the end of the year nineteen hundred and thirty-seven":

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 18th day of December, 1936, the powers of the University of Durham Commissioners under the said Act were continued until the end of April, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven:

And whereas The University of Durham Commissioners have made application to His Majesty in Council for the further continuation of their powers:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the powers of The University of Durham Commissioners shall continue until the end of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 13th day of April, 1937.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by subsection (2) of section eight of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920 (10 & 11 Geo. 5. c. 46), as amended by subsection (2) of section one of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1932 (22 Geo. 5. c. 15), power is conferred on His Majesty by Order in Council to declare that Part III of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, shall apply to any drug of whatever kind in the same manner as it applies to the drugs mentioned in subsection (1) of the said section eight if it appears to Him that the drug is or is likely to be productive, if improperly used, or is capable of being converted into a substance which is, or is likely to be productive, if improperly used, of ill effects substantially of the same character or nature as or analogous to those produced by morphine or cocaine:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that all preparations, admixtures or other substances (except syrupus Codeinae Phosphatis B.P.C. 1934) containing any proportion of methylmorphine (commonly known as codeine) or ethylmorphine (commonly known as dionin) associated with an inert substance whether solid or liquid and all preparations, admixtures or other substances containing more than 2.5 per cent. of methylmorphine or ethylmorphine (calculated as pure drug) associated with another medicinal substance are productive, if improperly used, or are capable of being converted into a substance which is, or is likely to be productive, if improperly used, of ill effects substantially of the same character or nature as or analogous to those produced by morphine or cocaine:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by subsection (2) of section eight of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, as amended by subsection (2) of section one of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1932, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that Part III of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, shall after the first day of May, 1937, apply to any preparation, admixture or other substance (except syrupus Codeinae Phosphatis B.P.C. 1934) containing any proportion of methylmorphine (commonly known as codeine) or ethylmorphine (commonly known as dionin) associated with any inert substance whether solid or liquid, and to any preparation, admixture or other substance containing more than 2.5 per cent. of methylmorphine or ethylmorphine (calculated as pure drug) associated with any other medicinal substance in the same manner as the said Part III applies to the drugs mentioned in sub-section (1) of section eight of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 13th day of April, 1937.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twelve of the Northern Ireland Land Purchase (Winding Up) Act, 1935 (in this Order referred to as "the Act") it is provided that His Majesty may by Orders in Council make such provision as seems necessary or proper for giving full effect to any provisions of the Act, and that in particular His Majesty may by any such Order in Council make such modifications and adaptations of the Acts relating to land purchase as may appear to Him necessary or proper in order to give effect to the provisions of the Act, or as may appear to Him necessary or proper as a consequence of any change effected by the provisions of the Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Section fifty-six of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1881, shall have effect subject to the following modification, that is to say, for the words "The Land Commission shall from time to time prepare in such form and at such times as the Treasury may from time to time direct accounts of their receipts and expenditure, and within six months after the expiration of the year to which the accounts relate the Land Commission shall transmit the same to the Controller and Auditor General," there shall be substituted the words "The Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland shall from time to time cause to be prepared in such form and at such times as the Treasury may from time to time direct accounts of the receipts and expenditure of His Majesty's High Court of Justice in Northern Ireland in respect of the functions transferred to that Court by or under the Northern Ireland Land
