MACHYNLLETH FAIRS.

Alteration of Dates.

Whereas a representation has been made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Machynlleth Urban District Council that Fairs have been annually held at Machynlleth on the 16th day of May and the 18th day of September, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that when the 16th day of May falls on a Sunday or Monday the Fair held on that date should be held on the preceding Saturday, and that the Fair held on the 18th day of September should be held on the third Saturday in September:

And whereas Notice of the said representation and of the time when the same should be taken into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Act, 1873:

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that when the 16th day of May falls on a Sunday or Monday the Fair annually held at Machynlleth on that date should be held on the preceding Saturday, and that the Fair annually held in Machynlleth on the 18th September should be held on the third Saturday in September:

Now therefore I, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1873, do hereby order that in future when the 16th day of May falls on a Sunday or Monday the aforesaid Fair annually held at Machynlleth on that date shall be held on the preceding Saturday; and that the aforesaid Fair annually held at Machynlleth on the 18th day of September shall in future be held on the third Saturday in September.
